Union Leader Vote Rigging Charge Aired

Teamsters' Boss
Accused In Probe
Of St. Louis Local

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probes seek new information today about an election allegedly rigged to keep Harold Gibbons in command of the hoodlum-infested St. Louis area Teamsters Union.

The Senate committee received testimony Thursday that seven officers of a carnival workers Teamster local in Tampa, Fla., were brought in to cast the votes that swung the election to Gibbons last January.

The election made Gibbons president of Joint Council 13 comprising Teamster locals in the St. Louis area. Until then, Gibbons was top man in the region by appointment from the union's international hierarchy.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said testimony from Gibbons, who had been scheduled to appear today, will be postponed at least until Tuesday.

Harry Karsh, a top lieutenant to Gibbons and actual boss of the Tampa local, invoked the Fifth Amendment Thursday in refusing to answer questions about Gibbons' election.

Nor would Karsh talk about allegations that he was Gibbons' agent in violence-ridden drives to recruit the nation's circus and carnival workers — first into the Jewelry Workers Union and then into the Teamsters after Karsh was kicked out of the jewelry union.

Most of the hearing dealt with Karsh's efforts to engineer labor contracts with circuses and carnivals, including the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus. There was considerable mention of violence in those organizing efforts.

The committee also heard how the Teamsters and another union set up a rival circus in Boston in 1956 in an effort to split the crowd while Ringling was playing there. However, the two unions lost heavily on the deal and the attempt at organizing Ringling workers failed.

Norfolk Schools Admit Negroes

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — The Norfolk School Board announced today it will enroll 17 Negroes into six white schools Sept. 8.

The decision was reached despite a state law that would require that any integrated public school be closed immediately.

The school board advised Federal Judge Walter E. Hoffman it would comply with court orders to start integration in schools here.

U. S. Youth Defended

Judges Slap Hoover On Juvenile Crimes

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Judges from throughout the nation sharply disagreed today with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's statement the nation's youth is "going to the dogs."

Rather, the judges felt, today's youth is better informed, more inclined to religion and more law-abiding than previous generations.

The jurists came to the defense of the younger generation Thursday in a resolution passed by the Advisory Council of Judges of the National Probation and Parole Assn., meeting in conjunction with the American Bar Assn.

The resolution deplored Hoover's statements before the ABA this week about juvenile crime.

Hoover said the nation had tried understanding, now it was the time for stricter control.

"We believe that in his speech to the ABA, Mr. Hoover stated or implied three fundamental fallacies," the judges declared. "1-That there is a general breakdown of law and order amongst the present youth of America as contrasted with earlier generations."

"2-That the satisfactory and complete answer to crime is a 'get tough' policy with primary emphasis upon the use of iron bars as a tool for correction."

"3-That there is an increase in crime which is directly attributed to 'failure' of the juvenile courts and our probation and parole system."

The resolution, approved by 44 juvenile, criminal and appellate court judges, held that none of the propositions were true.

Scotland Yard
Drops Actress'
Lost Cash Case

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard today dropped the case of Diana Dors' missing bundle of cash.

Detectives, announcing no charges would be filed, conferred with the movie star and her manager, Tommy Yeardey.

Diana had reported Tuesday that 11,000 pounds—$30,800—disappeared from her safe-deposit box at a London department store. Yeardey also had disappeared.

He turned up Thursday and announced he'd just transferred the money "on Diana's behalf to safe-guard her."

A detective and an attorney picked up the money from another safe-deposit box in London, and handed it over to the actress.

Producers Of TV Quiz Show And NBC Deny 'Rigging'

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Broadcasting Co. and producers of the "21" television quiz show deny charges by a contestant that the program was rigged.

Herbert Stempel, who won $50,000 on the show, contended he was coached on the answers before he went on the air and then was told to miss a question which enabled Charles Van Doren to eliminate him.

New York County Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan confirmed yesterday that Stempel's testimony brought the "21" show into the TV quiz program probe, touched off by a complaint of a contestant on the "Dodge" show.

Jack Barry and Dan Enright, producers of the "21" show, issued a statement saying Stempel's charges were "entirely spurious and malicious."

NBC issued a statement simultaneously, terming the accusations "utterly baseless and untrue."

The network said it learned of them over a year ago and an investigation turned up nothing to substantiate them.

Hogan, nominated for the U.S. Senate this week at the Democratic state convention in Buffalo, said his investigation of TV quiz shows has uncovered nothing thus far to warrant grand jury action.

Court Delay Might Give Faubus Aid

Little Rock School
Could Open Before
Decision Is Given

By The Associated Press
The U. S. Supreme Court has delayed for two weeks decision on the school integration crisis at Little Rock, Ark.

The court, in a rare emergency session, listened intently to three hours of arguments Thursday. Then, after a recess, it called for more arguments Sept. 11.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas held a package of anti-integration bills which, if signed into law, will give him tight control over any integration situation arising in the state's schools. The strongest of the six measures pushed through a special session of the Legislature is one permitting Faubus to close any public school on which integration is being forced.

Gets Broad Authority

He said he didn't know when he would sign the bills.

Included in the package which cleared the Legislature were bills permitting the governor to close forcibly integrated public schools; giving him authority to set up segregated classes within an integrated school; providing aid for any student displaced in an integration dispute and a bill postponing the opening of Central High School in Little Rock until Sept. 15. The school board had already postponed the opening date from Sept. 2 to Sept. 8.

Chief Justice Earl Warren said the Supreme Court delayed its decision because Central High would not open until Sept. 15.

Faubus, however, must sign the bill or the school board must act to delay the opening until that date. Thus Central High could open before the court decision. The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People hopes to have Negro children in the school when the fall term opens.

School Opening Delayed

In Charlottesville, Va., the school board Thursday night put off opening all except one of its schools while it decides what to do about conflicting orders from federal and state courts. One high school for Negroes, which is operated jointly by the city and an adjoining county, will open as scheduled Sept. 2. Others will open Sept. 15 unless they are required by state law to close because of integration.

Five Negro children were turned back at Greensboro, N. C., when they sought to register at two white elementary schools. One of the schools was integrated last year and Negro pupils have been assigned to it this year. No Negro pupils have been assigned to the other school.

Support Act
Inked By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today signed into law a bill permitting reductions in some farm price supports and forestalling scheduled acreage cutbacks for cotton and rice next year.

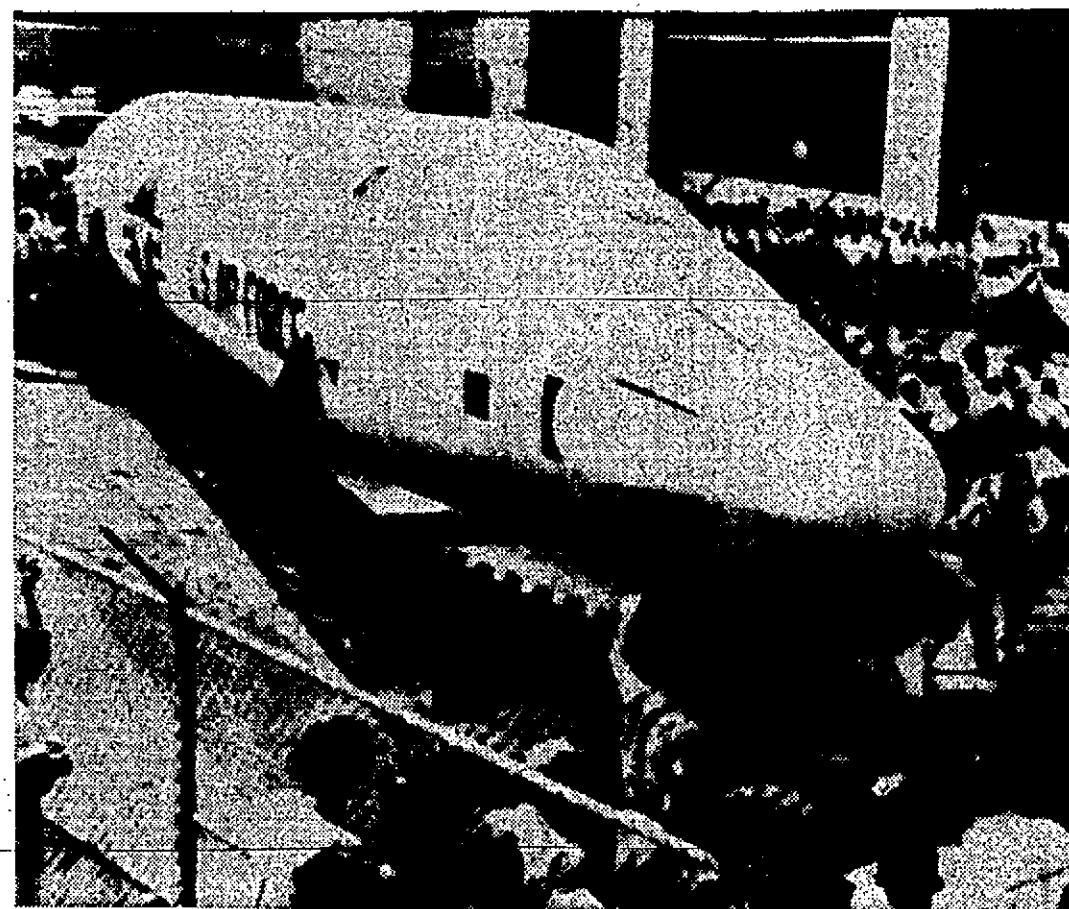

The President's signature sealed a hard-won victory for the beleaguered policies of Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

The bill capped a two-year battle between Benson and Congress over maintaining government price supports at high levels, or taking the administration road toward lower supports and more flexible management of the farm program.

The reason reportedly was the continuing dispute over Cyprus.

Long Holiday Due To Bring Heavier Toll

CHICAGO (AP) — The last holiday weekend of the summer lured millions of motorists to the highways today.

Of the three summer holidays Labor Day perennially spurs the largest volume of travel. Whereas Memorial Day and July 4 fall on varying days of the week, Labor Day always is on Monday, assuring a three-day weekend.

Many Americans tie the holiday in with their annual vacations and arrive home just in time for the reopening of schools for the fall term. Others use the travel time to drive their older children and belongings off to college.

And millions of others see it simply as a last chance to visit beaches, fishing spots and other outdoor attractions.

The National Safety Council estimates 45 million cars will be on the move over the weekend.

The council said this heavy volume of travel could lead to as many as 420 traffic deaths, 70 more than the 350 killed on non-holiday weekends.

The council recommended that drivers reduce speed by at least 10 m.p.h., start trips early and aim for a safe, rather than a quick, arrival, and do no drinking.

Nixon To Visit
Western Europe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon is tentatively scheduled for a brief visit to Western Europe following his late November dedication of a new American chapel in London.

But informed sources said today there will be no traveling abroad for Nixon until after the fall congressional campaign and November election.

He is now taking a short vacation with his family before tackling a heavy fall schedule.

Portable Radios Banned On British Airliners

LONDON (AP) — Britain's airline pilots have been told to forbid passengers playing portable radios while in flight.

"Experience has shown that fortuitous radiation by a passenger's portable radio receiver may cause interference to aircraft radio and navigation systems," the Ministry of Transport said.

Young Actress Loses Mother

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) — Actress Margaret O'Brien, former child star, grieved today for her mother, Mrs. Gladys O'Brien, who guided her to stardom.

Mrs. O'Brien, 52, died Thursday at St. John's Hospital. She had been ill for seven months with a severe heart condition.

Daisy Veers From Coast, Peril Fades

By The Associated Press
Hurricane Daisy swept north-eastward along the New England coast today but its threat to all but offshore waters around Cape Cod was reported practically eliminated.

The Boston Weather Bureau said the storm was decreasing in intensity and its danger to land areas largely terminated.

Earlier uncertainty as to what the New England storm effect would be, however, caused a delay until later today in President Eisenhower's flight to Newport, R.I., for a vacation.

By midmorning the storm center was reported 70 miles south of Nantucket.

Up to that time the land effects had been no more than moderate winds and rain, though the rain was sometimes heavy.

Even in such exposed areas along the coast as Block Island, the storm brought nothing more than gales of less than 50 miles an hour.

Legion Meet
Set To Open

CHICAGO (UPI) — Thousands of veterans were already pouring into Chicago today, three days before the start of the annual convention of the American Legion.

The early birds were arriving in advance to take part in a heady round of campaigning for the Legion's coveted red hats, worn by national officers of the veterans' organization.

Ten candidates have received post, district and department backing in the race to succeed National Commander John S. Gleason Jr., Winnetka, Ill.

'Atlas' Firing Seen Boost To U. S. Prestige

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The prestige of the United States in the intercontinental ballistic missile field has been given a big boost by the latest successful launching of a mighty Atlas.

The 100-ton ICBM, the nation's most potent war weapon, blasted 3,000 miles through space after a beautiful liftoff Thursday night and hit right on target.

The second straight success with a fully powered Atlas was a major stride toward the Air Force's goal of developing an operational ICBM within the next two years.

The 35-foot "Big A" rose aloft atop a huge ball of white flame with a tremendous roar. Because the night was clear, the missile's flaming exhaust was seen in the sky for more than four minutes.

The Atlas, which is powered by twin booster rockets and a sustainer engine generating a total of about 350,000 pounds of thrust, was equipped with a radio-command guidance system for the first time.

Otherwise, the rocket was essentially the same as the one that soared 3,000 miles on a successful space journey Aug. 1. The first attempt to launch a three-engine Atlas failed July 19 when the missile burst apart violently 45 seconds after it took off.

"What do you want to do?" she was asked Thursday.

There was no hesitation in Karleen's answer: "I want to dance."

China Reds Again Shell Chiang Isle

U. S. Sends Giant
Flat-top To Bolster
Asian Navy Forces

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Communist Chinese artillery blasted the Nationalist-held Quemoy islands again today in what some sources said was a pre-invasion bombardment. The United States emphasized the urgency of the situation by ordering the giant aircraft carrier Midway to Formosa.

Some Nationalist government offices began moving out of Taipei into the suburbs as a precaution against possible Communist air attacks.

The Talks With Herter

In Washington, President Eisenhower summoned Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter to the White House today and conferred with him about Formosa. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerly said "the United States is watching the situation" when asked about the Red Chinese threat to invade the offshore islands in the Formosa Strait.

In London, the British Foreign Office said the situation in the Formosa Strait "is serious but not critical." British diplomats were reported to have concluded that "a general war" in the area is not imminent.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said the Reds hurled a 7,100-round bombardment early in the day at the small islands of Taitan and Erhlan in the Quemoy group, which controls the entrance to the Communist port of Amoy.

When the Midway and the carrier Essex, now moving toward Formosa from the Mediterranean, reach the area with their escort ships, Vice Adm. Wallace M. Beakley's 7th Fleet will be a powerful fighting force of six aircraft carriers, three heavy cruisers, 40 destroyers, four submarines and at least 20 supporting ships of various types.

Can Carry 100 Planes

The Navy did not say how many warplanes were aboard the 45,000-ton Midway, which can handle up to 100 aircraft.

A government spokesman said several sections of the Ministry of Economic Affairs and the Overseas Affairs Commission already were quitting Taipei and that the Ministry of Interior will begin moving some sections on Monday as urged by the premier.

The Nationalists clamped a five-hour curfew on the major cities of Formosa during the night and police and soldiers carried out a house-to-house search for Communist agents. For security reasons there was no announcement of the number arrested.

Communist shore batteries bombarded the Quemoy Islands for the seventh straight day while Peiping Radio broadcast surrender demands around the clock to the Nationalist garrisons on Quemoy and on Matsu, 120 miles to the north.

The United States rushed another giant aircraft carrier to the Formosa Straits from Honolulu and repeated its warning to Peiping that it would be "folly" for them to carry out their new threat of invasion.

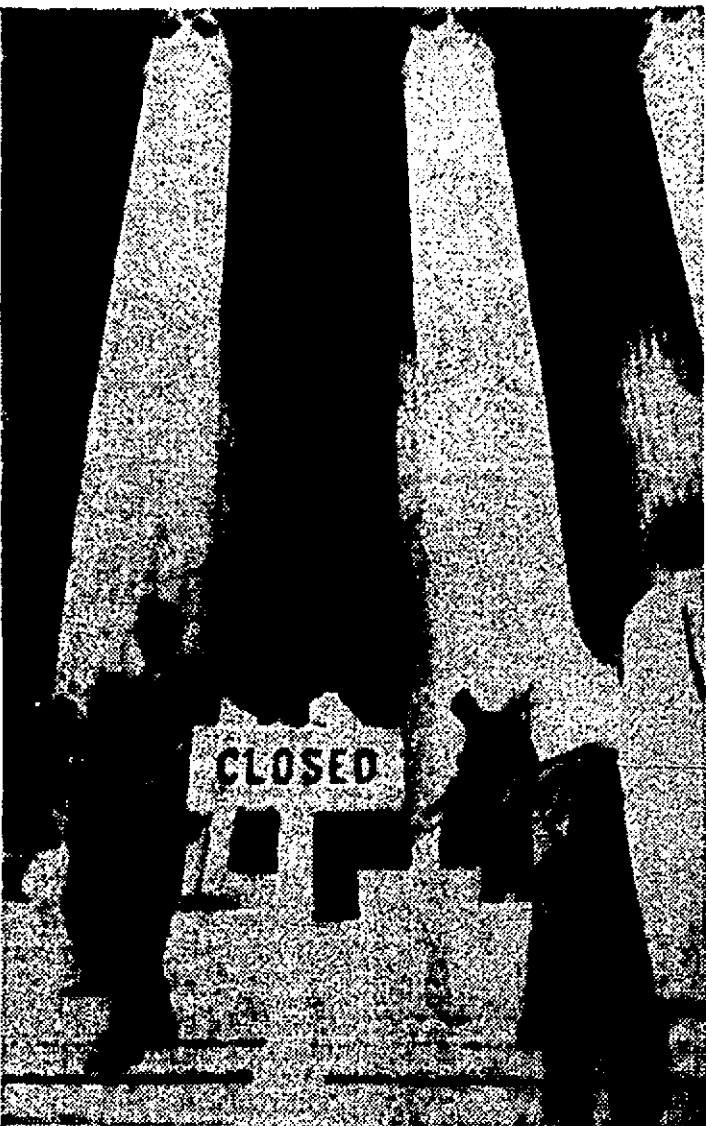

Another warning to the Communists was voiced in Seoul, Korea, by U. S. Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker who advised Russia and Communist China to heed the warnings of U. S. government leaders against carrying out aggressive action in the Formosa Strait.

Pursuit Rule Relaxed

Authoritative sources in Washington disclosed U. S. Pacific forces have relaxed their "hot pursuit" boundary line and would chase attacking Communist planes right up to the Chinese mainland.

Whitney Acquires Control Of N. Y. 'Herald Tribune'

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Herald Tribune announced Thursday night that John Hay Whitney, U.S. ambassador to the Court of St. James, had acquired control of the 117-year-old independent Republican newspaper and its European edition published in Paris.

Ogden R. Reid, president and editor of the newspaper, said the Reid family would retain "a substantial interest." He said he would continue, at Whitney's request, as chief executive officer of the newspaper during the "transition" period.

Whitney will remain in London as ambassador to Great Britain until January, 1961.

Other officers of the newspaper also will continue in their present posts, Reid said. However, the board of directors was reorganized. Whitney will hold no title on the newspaper.

Reid said there would be no staff changes and indicated there may be some expansion. He said the newspaper currently employs about 1,900 persons in New York, including 400 editorial personnel, and 400 in Paris, including 50 editorial workers.

Reid said the newspaper would continue its present policy as an "independent Republican newspaper." He said plans for the future included placing the newspaper in a "more competitive position" and improving and expanding its editorial coverage.

Latest available figures showed a circulation of 377,400 at the end of March, 1958, an increase of 2.8 per cent over the previous six months. Reid said he expected the September figures to show another gain.

Circulation of the Sunday Herald Tribune as of March 31, 1958, was 567,265, a drop of 9,223 from September 30, 1957. The Paris edition of the newspaper, which has a circulation of approximately 50,000, is at an all-time high in circulation and advertising, Reid said.

Financial details of the transaction were not disclosed.

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council said Thursday the country's traffic death toll dropped 3 per cent in July compared to the same month last year, representing a saving of 100 lives.

The council said 3,140 deaths were reported across the nation against 3,240 in July 1957. It was the 11th month in a row and the 19th in the last 20 to show a drop in traffic fatalities from the same month the preceding year.

The toll so far this year is 7 per cent below last year at the 7-month point — 19,380 against 20,750 in 1957.

The council estimated 650,000 persons have been disabled by accidents this year, compared with 700,000 for the same period last year.

Travel was up about one per cent the first five months of this year, the council said, while deaths dropped 7 per cent. This yielded a record low death rate of 5.1 for every 100 million miles of vehicle travel.

The council said 27 states had fewer traffic deaths this July than last, with 21 showing increases. A 4 per cent decrease was reported by 661 cities of more than 10,000 population.

The three states with the greatest decreases were West Virginia, 32 per cent; Connecticut, 29 per cent; and South Carolina, 26 per cent.

The three cities in each population group with the best traffic record so far this year, ranked according to the number of deaths for every 10,000 registered vehicles, were:

More than one million population: Detroit—2.3; Chicago 2.7; Philadelphia, 2.9.

750,000-one million: St. Louis, San Francisco, 2.1; Washington, 2.4.

500,000-750,000: Milwaukee, 1.7; Cincinnati, 2.1; Minneapolis, 2.2.

350,000-500,000: Indianapolis, 1.3; Portland, Ore., 1.6; Memphis, 1.7.

200,000-350,000: Wichita, 0.9; Syracuse, N.Y., 1.0; Toledo, Ohio, 1.1.

100,000-200,000: Hartford, Conn., 0.3; Evansville, Ind., 0.5; Montgomery, Ala., 0.6.

Coast Guard Hunts Boat, Five Aboard

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Coast Guard said today it is directing a widespread search of the hurricane-swept Atlantic for a 47-foot pleasure boat with five men aboard, missing on a trip from Bermuda to New Jersey.

The boat, the Golden Eye, may be in the direct path of hurricane Daisy, the Coast Guard said.

The Golden Eye is owned by Lehmann Gerth Estates, Inc., of West Wind, N.J. It is equipped with a two-way radio but no word has been heard from the craft, which left Bermuda last Saturday and should have arrived at Brielle, N.J., Monday.

The Coast Guard said for the past two days a total of eight Coast Guard, Navy and Air Force amphibious and land planes have searched the 640-mile route. All ships and commercial planes in the area also have been notified to be on the lookout.

Officials expressed fear that food and water for the men aboard the Golden Eye may be running out, if the craft still is afloat.

Cardiovascular disease caused 53.3 per cent of all deaths in the United States during 1955.

China Reds

Reds hit the Quemoy Islands with only about 400 shells Thursday, the lowest number since they began their bombardments on Saturday. But they lobbed over a handful of shells during the night and then hit Tatan and Erhlan islands with 7,000 shells a few hours later.

It appeared the Communists were now concentrating on purely military targets, including the big Quemoy Island airstrip, in an apparent preparation for invasion. But Quemoy's big underground rock and concrete fortifications were reported undamaged.

Sleep Sickness Kills Airman In Korea Epidemic

TOKYO (AP)—An epidemic of sleeping sickness ravaging Japan and Korea has struck U. S. servicemen or their dependents in both countries.

U. S. Air Force authorities disclosed today that one airman in Korea has died of the disease—known scientifically as encephalitis—since the outbreak a month ago.

In Japan, three children of Air Force men have come down with the disease.

In Korea, the disease has already killed 58 persons. There have been 161 deaths reported in Japan.

Bills Signed To Check Obscene Matter In Mail

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday signed two bills designed to crack down on use of the mails or express, services to send obscene matter, especially to young people.

One measure would tighten enforcement by providing that offenders could be prosecuted either where the material was mailed or where it was received. Congress had been told the effect of court decisions was to permit prosecution only at the dispatching point.

The new law also permits punishing second offenders with a fine up to $10,000 and imprisonment up to 10 years.

The other new law broadens the types of obscene literature and pictures that may be seized and detained by the Post Office Department.

The department is authorized to impound two categories of mail which previously had been exempted:

1. Pornographic magazines, with second-class mailing privileges, bound for news distributors.

2. Obscene literature and pictures that have been copyrighted. Material in those categories was exempted two years ago when Congress first permitted postal authorities to impound material for 20 days while seeking a permanent court injunction.

The Post Office Department complained that such exemptions barred it from cleaning up newsstands. Practically all obscene material destined for private subscribers was copyrighted to get around the law, the department added.

Under the new law, mail addressed to publishers of second-class mail publications and agents for those publishers continue to be exempted.

Three In Auto, Bus Crash Die

AMES, Iowa (UPI)—Three persons were killed and four others were injured when their car struck the side of a Greyhound bus on U.S. 69 near here.

Dead were Mrs. Joseph L. Morgan, 41, Bleton, Mo.; her daughter Joan, 13, and her mother, Mrs. Fannie Katzousky, 72, Duluth, Minn.

Triple Truck Crash Causes Death Of Girl

Seven Persons Hurt While Riding Rear Of Truck To Picnic

RIDGEVILLE, Md. (AP) — An 11-year-old girl was killed and seven other persons, including four children were injured yesterday in a three-truck accident on U.S. 40 near here.

State Police said a farm supply truck crashed into the rear of small truck carrying three women and eight children on a picnic. The smaller vehicle then struck the rear of a tractor-trailer carrying a bulldozer.

Dianne M. Whitney of Gambrills, Md., was hurled from the truckload of picnickers and suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Frederick Memorial Hospital.

Of the seven injured, three women and an 11-year-old were hospitalized, none in serious condition. Three children were treated and released.

The driver of the farm supply truck was identified as Alden Eugene Bittner of Hagerstown and was charged with manslaughter, reckless driving and following another vehicle too closely.

By LOUIS G. PANOS
BALTIMORE (AP) — The same 14 Maryland counties which opened school doors to desegregated classes last year will do so again next week.

In most of them the desegregation program will encompass new grades or new schools.

Department of Education officials estimate 336,905 pupils will have started the 1957-58 school year between Sept. 2, when the first schools open in Garrett and Carroll counties, and Sept. 8, when the last classes get under way in Washington County.

A year ago, statewide enrollments included 17,397 Negro pupils in 257 schools previously designated all-white. In 1956 there were 10,968 in 205 schools.

Dr. David Zimmerman, assistant superintendent of schools, said in 1956 the State was making "gradual, but satisfactory" progress in its desegregation program. "This year our progress is comparable," he says.

In nine Maryland counties there will be no integration of Negro and white pupils.

These include Garrett, which has no known Negro children of school age, and Calvert, where 32.5 per cent of the estimated enrollment is Negro.

Asked about Calvert County's desegregation policy, School Superintendent Maurice A. Dunkle said: "The board (of education) has approved the use of forms to handle the requests for transfer of all students within the county."

The other counties where segregation will be continued are Caroline, Dorchester, Kent, Queen Annes, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester—all on the Eastern Shore.

Superintendent James G. Busick of Dorchester, where about one-third of the estimated 5,800 enrollment is Negro, said no applications had been received from Negro pupils seeking admission to previously all-white schools.

Nevertheless the county is continuing its announced program of desegregating at least one grade a year. This year the 10th grade will be added to 12th and 11th, previously classified as non-segregated.

In the other six shore counties still segregated, school officials have announced they will accept applications for all schools from Negro pupils but none have been received.

Talbot and Cecil are the only shore counties where some desegregation has actually been put into effect and will continue this year.

Here is a county-by-county breakdown of the school desegregation picture:

Anne Arundel— Desegregation will be extended to the 5th and 6th grades. Last year 173 Negro pupils attended the desegregated 1st through 4th grades. About 17 per cent of the county's estimated 36,600 pupils are Negro.

Allegany County— Since the Supreme Court decision of 1955 there have been no racial restrictions on school enrollment except for limitations imposed by the space available in schools. That year 131 Negroes attended previously all-white schools, compared with 160 in 1956 and 196 last year. An all-Negro school remains open.

Baltimore County— Six additional schools have accepted Negro enrollments for the first time, making 52 altogether. Thirty-two others have been classified as non-segregated but no applications have been received. Last year 46 of the county's 93 schools had accepted 844 Negro pupils in previously all-white classes.

Calvert County— With a greater percentage of Negro pupils than any other county, Calvert has no applications from Negroes desiring to attend previously all-white schools.

Carroll County— The New Windsor school, with 12 grades, enrolled 10 pupils in 1957, its third year of desegregation. An attempt to desegregate the Union Bridge school was made in 1955, but Negro pupils were withdrawn later.

Cecil County— Officials here are continuing their policy of considering all applications for all schools. Sixteen Negro pupils last year attended three previously all-white schools.

Charles County— Beginning with the first grade in 1955, officials have been desegregating one grade year. In practical effect, this has involved two Negro students at Indian Head.

Dorchester County— Desegregation has been extended to the 10th grade in a program which last year included the 12th and 11th grades, but no applications have been received from Negro pupils seeking admission to previously all-white schools.

Frederick County— All but three of the county's 38 schools will be classified as desegregated. Last year there were 28 in such classification, but only 14 actually had pupils of the Negro and white races.

Harford County— Elementary grades in all but 2 of the county's 16 lower schools will be desegregated, compared with seven schools desegregated enrolling 51 pupils last year. One Negro pupil has been newly enrolled in the Aberdeen high school and two are beginning their second year at the Edgewood high school.

Howard County— After the desegregation of elementary schools last year, when seven Negro pupils attended one previously all-white school, the county is beginning the desegregation of junior high schools with the 7th grade this year. Four Negro pupils have been enrolled in two previously all-white schools.

Kent County— Officials have agreed to accept applications on a non-racial basis, but have received none leading to desegregation.

Montgomery County— School Superintendent C. Taylor Whittier estimates that 1,326 of the county's Negro pupils will attend desegregated classes in 48 of the county's 102 schools. This is 43 per cent of the Negro enrollment.

Prince Georges County— Superintendent William Schmidt estimates the county-wide desegregation program will result in the enrollment of 50 or 60 additional Negro pupils in previously all-white classes. Last year there were 214 in 17 of the county's 112 schools.

Kent County— No applications have been received from Negro pupils for previously all-white schools.

St. Marys County— Last year the county approved applications from four Negro pupils for previously all-white schools under a program desegregating elementary schools, but none showed up. One remained in parochial school, two continued in their old public schools with all-white Great Mills Schools. It denied the application of his sister for the senior high school section of the same school but was ordered to admit her in a Federal Court decision by Judge Roszel C. Thomsen. Thomsen, who earlier had upheld the "stair-step" desegregation program of Harford County, ruled that there was no overriding administrative reason for denying the girl admission to the St. Marys high school. County officials have taken steps to appeal the decision.

Talbot County— With 11 Negro pupils enrolled in the 1st and 2nd grades of three schools last year, the county is extending its desegregation program to the third grade this year.

Prizes Given At Stafford Reunion

The annual Stafford Family Reunion was held in the form of a basket picnic at the Union Grove Camp Grounds, August 24. Dinner was served and prayers were led by Mrs. Sarah Stafford.

Following the dinner there was a short business meeting. It was decided to hold the reunion at the same grounds and on the 23rd of August next year.

Dale Lynn Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamilton of Hagerstown, was the recipient of a gift for being the youngest person attending, and Mrs. Sarah Stafford for being the oldest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stafford were presented a gift for having the largest number of children present.

There was a total of approximately 100 persons attending the reunion.

Delay Sought In Order For Integration

District Appeals Court Gets Issue From Md. County

BALTIMORE (AP) — An attorney for St. Marys County will try to convince the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals today to hear quickly a motion for delay in an order admitting a Negro girl to a high school with whites.

U.S. District Court Judge Roszel C. Thomsen signed the order yesterday and then turned down a motion to delay while the county could appeal his decision.

The Circuit Court of Appeals is in summer recess and schools in St. Marys County open Sept. 4. Judge Simon E. Sobeloff agreed, however, to sit this afternoon with Judge Morris Soper to receive a motion for a stay.

It will be up to H. Vernon Eney, Baltimore attorney representing the county, to persuade the judges to hold a hearing on the merits of the motion.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said it would argue against any delay.

It had taken the case of Joan Elaine Groves to Federal Court after she was refused admission to the Great Mills High School.

St. Marys County planned to integrate high schools next year. It opened elementary schools to both races last year and the color line will be wiped out in junior highs next month.

Judge Thomsen said in a brief memorandum issued when he turned down the delay that Joan Groves "has already lost a full year of segregated education which will probably require her to spend additional time in school to obtain the desired diploma."

"A further delay pending appeal would require her to enter Great Mills High School in the middle of a term, if the decree of this court is sustained by the Court of Appeals. Defendants have shown no reason for delay which outweighs these considerations."

But Eney contended that the court ruling was in direct conflict with the board's program for integrating its schools.

"The defendants," he said, "have with diligence and good faith endeavored to desegregate the public schools of St. Marys County at the earliest practicable time consistent with the orderly solution of the important administrative and far-reaching social problems involved."

"They have every hope and expectation that the segregation can be accomplished smoothly with public acceptance and without untoward incident in a very short span of time."

"However, if the defendants are compelled to admit Joan Elaine Groves to the Great Mills High School before the appeal in this case can be heard and determined, they are fearful that public resentment will be aroused to such an extent that much of the public education and acceptance of their plan of desegregation will be undone and their efforts in the future will be greatly hampered."

Record Hop Scheduled

A record hop will be held today from 8 to 11:30 p. m. at Central YMCA community room. Starting next Friday the Rec Club will start auditions of orchestras and late in September two orchestras will be selected to play on alternate Fridays.

TRUCK INFERNO PERILS BLOCK — This fiercely blazing gasoline truck threatened a whole block of stores and homes for more than two hours yesterday in Windsor, Ont. The driver, Tom Girard, had delivered 400 gallons of gasoline to a customer, and had 600 gallons still aboard when the truck suddenly caught fire. He drove away from buildings to a safer location, ignoring the fire at his back. Firemen praised him for his courage. The fire was extinguished.

Area Health Workers Plan Retirements

Three members of the staff of the Allegany County Health Department have announced they will retire within a few months.

They are Mrs. Mary Whitfield, Lonaconing; Mrs. Isabella Laughlin, 814 Edgewood Drive and W. R. E. King, 450 Columbia Street.

Mrs. Whitfield, who will end nearly 20 years of service with the department on September 30, has been assigned to the Lonaconing district for a number of years.

She has been a public health nurse here since January 1, 1939.

Mrs. Laughlin has been a public health nurse here since November 15, 1925.

She has been assigned to the Flintstone-Oldtown district for many years.

She has served in the department for 33 years and is second in service on the nursing staff only to Miss Margaret Morrissey, 803 Piedmont Avenue, who has served here as a public health nurse for 36 years.

Mr. King, who will retire November 1, lives at 450 Columbia Street.

He has served as a sanitarian for the Health Department here since September 17, 1945.

Mr. King began his Health Department career with the City Health Department, which was recently absorbed into the county system. He has been identified with the restaurant control program here for a number of years.

Tentative plans have been made for a party to honor all three veteran health department workers this fall.

Successors to the retiring staff members have not been named, officials said.

Court Suspends Man's Sentence

Roy Dolly, Williams Road, yesterday was found guilty by Magistrate Morris Baron on charges of petty larceny.

Dolly was given a suspended fine of $25 and suspended 30-day jail term and placed on probation for six months.

The charge was preferred by city police who accused Dolly and Gerald Burkett, Elm Street, of taking four red lanterns from a trench in Shade's Lane. The magistrate dismissed the charge against Burkett.

In old English usage, the term "worm" often was used for the mythical dragon, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Instructors, Student Gains Cited In State

First Enrollment Change In Three Years In W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — An increase in the number of instructors and students in West Virginia's public schools this fall marks the first change in enrollment in three years, Supervisor William K. Hamilton of the State Board of School Finance said today.

Hamilton estimated the enrollment in elementary and high schools this fall would top 462,000, an increase of some 8,000 students above the 1957-58 totals. Elementary school enrollment is expected to total about 295,000 while some 167,000 students scheduled for high school classes.

A preliminary survey disclosed 17,165 teachers had been employed, an increase of 219 over the number on hand at the opening of the school term a year ago, Hamilton said. He added that the number might increase by as much as 30-50 by the end of the school year.

And he predicted the number of students probably would increase to 472,000 by the end of the nine-month term next spring. The anticipated increase indicates that West Virginia is "off the stationary plateau on which it has stood during the past three years when there was no appreciable increase in enrollment," he said.

Most of the gain will probably show up in industrial areas along the Ohio, Kanawha and Potomac Rivers, Hamilton said.

This is the last weekend of the summer vacation in most counties. Schools will open next Tuesday, Sept. 2, in a majority of places.

However, Roane County wants to be ready to begin classroom work by then and will register students on Friday. Conversely, Mercer County schools are not scheduled to open until the following Friday, Sept. 5.

Last year there was a decline in students in certain border areas where families moved out of the state. But some school officials predict many former students will be back this fall as their parents return to West Virginia after losing out-of-state jobs as a result of the recession.

Offices To Be Closed

Offices in the Union Street County Building will be closed tomorrow, Sunday and Labor Day for the long holiday week end.

The Court House, City Hall and various other state and federal offices will also be closed for the holiday week end.

Toys Sought For Yuletide

Associated Charities is seeking toys to be repaired and painted for distribution to deserving children at Christmas.

Last year thousands of toys were processed and the local office is preparing to do a similar job. Anyone with discarded toys that can be repaired and given a coat of paint is asked to contact the local office by calling PA 4-3411. The toys will be collected.

Or, the toys may be dropped off at the office located on the second floor of the City Hall.

Little Interest In Poultry Tours

Little interest has been shown by area poultrymen in two tours suggested by Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent.

On August 14, letters were sent to about 80 poultrymen suggesting that they might wish to visit either Chambersburg, Pa., or the Harrisonburg, Va., area around the end of September.

So far only six of the poultrymen have expressed a preference. The county agent would like immediate replies from the rest of the poultrymen.

Restaurant Breakage Remains Big Problem

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst NEW YORK (AP) — If you take your wife out to dinner you can get out of helping with the dishes — unless you forget your billfold. But the dishwashing and dish-breaking problem is still there. It's one of today's big headaches for those in the restaurant and hotel business.

They report replacing as much as 85 per cent of their cups and 47 per cent of their saucers annually. The toll varies widely. Some eateries say they replace less than 15 per cent of all their tableware stocks annually. A few report replacing up to 150 per cent.

This can eat into profits almost as fast as Junior can into a hamburger.

Those who cater to the public's hunger have tried many ways of cutting this cost. Some of the larger ones report that dishwashing machines have cut their breakage costs by one-fourth to one-half. A few say they can see little difference in this respect between the mechanical and the human washer.

Some have turned to plastic tableware and report spending considerably less of their annual gross dollar volume now for replacements. A few have turned to metal tableware and find breakage a small item with chief worries dents, scratches or polishing.

To look into trends in the commercial feeding field, a trade publication, restaurant equipment dealer, has tabulated replies from some 300 restaurants and hotels queried about their problems.

The majority say that breakage cost is a major item in their budget but that quality and style and customer preference still is high on their list of considerations when choosing tableware.

The higher priced the menu the fancier the customers expect the place settings to be.

Some managements comment they expect to pay more for good chinaware that goes with their decor than for the standard grades and one says, "we buy the best — it lasts longer."

Now someone should survey the housewife on her tableware replacement problems and on the

Former Head Of Montrose School Dies

TAKOMA PARK, Md. (AP) — Mrs. Edith Perkins Gardner, former superintendent of the Montrose School for Girls in Reisterstown, died last night at Washington Sanitarium.

Mrs. Gardner had been ill about a year and confined to nursing homes about three years. She retired in February, 1951.

The native of Maine came to Maryland in 1934 to take charge of the State training school. She is credited with many reforms and advances at the school including the establishment of a reward system to replace harsh discipline.

Survivors include a son, Everett B. Gardner, of Olney, Md. Her husband died in 1930.

Veteran Head
Of Fostoria
Firm Retires

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (UPI)—W. F. Dalzell, for 13 years president of Fostoria Glass Co., announced his retirement Thursday. The company's board of directors immediately named R. F. Hannum, vice president and general manager, to succeed Dalzell. D. B. Dalzell, was elevated from sales manager to Hannum's position.

W. F. Dalzell's retirement marked the end of 46 years of continuous service with the firm. He was named chairman of the board by the directors.

Dalzell became president in 1945 and was instrumental in formation of a national organization named Glass Crafts of America. He has served as its president since 1949. He also is a director of the American Glassware Assn.

Work On Dial
Conversion
Moves Ahead

FROSTBURG—Frostburg's dial center project is proceeding on schedule, according to Robert L. Crabtree, local manager.

He said seven men from this area and the Oakland and Hagerstown offices have converted about 35 per cent of the stations served by the office to dial operation.

This consists of replacing the instruments or putting dials on existing sets.

Meanwhile, Western Electric Company crews have been moving equipment into the new center and have started mounting and connecting the equipment.

The dial conversion project was estimated to cost $640,000 when planned. Estimates of cost have increased to the $673,000 mark.

The conversion ceremony, scheduled November 30, will mark the completion of the program to convert all Allegany and Garrett telephone service from manual to dial operation.

All telephones in the two counties will be numbered on the 2-5 system, which is the nationwide dialing plan.

State Reports
Gain In July
Employment

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Employment in non-agricultural occupations showed a slight gain during July for the second straight month in West Virginia, the State Employment Security Department reported today.

Although the rise was only 300, it was encouraging, the department said. It noted that at mid-summer, non-farm employment usually shows a drop. The total of 361,700 employed at mid-July was 43,200 below the corresponding time last year, however.

A rise of 900 in manufacturing employment, pushing that total to 116,900, offset a drop of 600 in non-manufacturing job holders. That total stood at 34,800.

The report said earnings of factory production workers in the state stood at $2.27 an hour. The hourly pay scale represented a 5-cent increase over mid-June and showed to $88.30 the average weekly pay check for such workers.

A general wage-increase in the steel industry boosted hourly earnings in primary metals 15 cents and more orders required a step-up of 2.7 hours in the work week. Chemicals reported a substantial amount of premium pay in July and some scattered wage increases which lifted hourly earnings 4 cents above the previous month.

The department said the vacation shutdown of the coal industry over the July 4th holiday resulted in inconclusive data for computing average hours and earnings.

Durable goods industries, with a gain of 600 for the month, was still 8,600 employees short of its year-ago level. Seasonal trends were noted in non-manufacturing industries, with bituminous coal mining still 16,500 below the 77,500 employed a year ago.

Government recovered 1,000 of its May-June loss in expansion of road construction and maintenance crews, state park facilities and municipal recreation programs.

Child 'Captured'
In Milk Can On Father's Truck

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Deborah Faye McCain, four-year-old daughter of milkman Carl McCain, will likely stay clear of her father's milk delivery truck hereafter.

The child climbed feet-first into an empty 10-gallon milk can Wednesday while the truck was parked in front of the house. After getting her entire body through the seven and three-fourths inch hole, she was unable to get out.

Her cries brought her parents to the truck but they were unable to release the now tearful Debbie.

McCain rushed seven miles from his rural home to Hopkinsville where workers at the Borden Milk Co. used a steel saw and wire snips to release her. A pop-sicle helped her through the noisy ordeal.

McCain said she was "none the worse for wear."

State Agency Plan Seen As Economy Aid

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Part of West Virginia Conservation Director Warden M. Lane's proposal to reorganize and expand his agency received qualified support Thursday from State Auditor B. Sims.

Lane appeared before the Legislature's Interim Committee on Government and Finance Tuesday and offered a plan which would rename his agency the Department of Natural Resources and absorb three state agencies and parts of two others, including the Public Land Corp.

Sims, a member of the land group headed by Gov. Cecil H. Underwood, said the transfer of this unit to the proposed agency "might be a good thing."

"It depends on whether the head of the new agency gets somebody familiar with the law and adheres to it," Sims said. "It depends upon the kind of man employed and how he runs the corporation."

Sims pointed out that revenues derived through the corporation must go into the school fund and that if the money is spent any other way he would oppose a change.

The auditor said it was "a question of judgement" whether the corporation belonged under such a department but added that "it might make for economy."

County 4-H Exhibit Held

ROMNEY — The annual Hampshire County 4-H exhibit was held this week in the Court House Annex.

There were 228 projects and exhibits exhibited, including 43 livestock circulars in the display.

Categories covered in the exhibit were recreation, home beautification, handicraft, potatoes, home vegetable gardening, entomology, birds, West Virginia trees, rural electrification, progressive farmer, wild flowers, pack and shack, freezing food, food preservation, canning, cooking, baked desserts, yeast breads, meal planning, clothing, sewing, room improvement, personal accounting, rabbit raising, trapping, pig feeding, market lambs, and purebred pigs.

Ribbons were presented to the first three winners in each event by David G. Nuzum, district chairman. Scores and starters were Dr. Donald Whitworth, Piedmont; Lester Shafer, Petersburg; and Tobias Stickley, Burlington.

Longest and strongest bone in the human skeleton is the femur.

Outing Planned By Piedmont Scout Troop

PIEDMONT — Members of Boy Scout Troop 33 will hold an outing tomorrow at Deep Creek Lake. They will leave from Trinity Methodist Church at 9 a. m. and return at 5 p. m. The scouts are to take enough food for two meals and their swimming trunks.

Their next meeting has been postponed to Monday, September 8, when they are to play football and softball.

Texas Accidentally Shoots Self In Foot

FROSTBURG — Charles Barclay, 24, of Brownsville, Texas, accidentally shot himself in the foot yesterday while target shooting at Swager's Dam.

Barclay, who is visiting his mother, Mrs. Clara Barclay, Lonaconing, lowered his rifle when he saw some children approaching. The weapon somehow discharged, the bullet entering his left foot in back of the toes. He was treated by a local doctor.

Sir Francis Drake sailed around the world on the "Golden Hind."

Swimming Meet Held By Tri-Valley Scouts

KEYSER — Boy Scout Troop 30, sponsored by the Tri-Towns Rotary Club, won first place in the second annual swimming meet of the Tri-Valley Scout District, held recently at the municipal pool here.

The winner's trophy was accepted on behalf of the troop by Scoutmaster James Rafter. Troop 30 scored 68 points in three ability groups to win the meet.

Placing second with 59 points was Troop 83 of Burlington, while Troop 34 of Piedmont finished third with 56 points.

Bronze medals for high scores were won by Richard Bosley of Troop 30, 13 points in the non-swimmer group; Gary Bosley of Troop 30, 13 points in the beginner unit; and Charles Stewart, 14 points in the swimmer class.

District Commissioner Fred Anderson was in charge of the competition, in which 66 scouts from 11 troops participated. The program was sponsored by the Tri-Towns Lions Club, and members of the Keyser Lions were judges. Wilbert Sifton, Potomac Council field executive, was supervisor of safety. Assisting him were Fred Clark, pool manager, and the lifeguard staff of the pool.

Individual winners in the non-swimmer group were Richard Bosley, float and shallow dive; Billy Meek, Troop 83, breathholding; Francis Kidwell, Troop 30, pingpong ball race, and Elmer Johnson, Troop 83, running race.

In the beginner class, winners were Douglas Wolf, Troop 83, side stroke; Doris Vance, Troop 27, free style; Paul Metz, Troop 30, surface dive; Douglas Durst, Troop 83, breath holding; Gary Bosley, pingpong ball race; Norman Moore, Troop 59, float, and Terry Reigner and Douglas Wolf, Troop 83, two-man relay.

Swimmer division winners included Charles Stewart, back stroke; Richard High, Troop 34, breast stroke; Robert Hamilton, Troop 33, side stroke; James Skidmore, Troop 34, surface dive; Charles Stewart, free style; Carlton Swisher, Troop 58, float; Joseph Stafford, Troop 34, underwater swim for distance; James Skidmore, rescue, and James Skidmore, Charles Stewart, Joseph Stafford and Richard High, relay.

Ribbons were presented to the first three winners in each event by David G. Nuzum, district chairman. Scores and starters were Dr. Donald Whitworth, Piedmont; Lester Shafer, Petersburg; and Tobias Stickley, Burlington.

Fall Festivals Scheduled For West Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Three water spectacles and two of the state's three biggest fall festivals highlight the final month of the West Virginia vacation season opening next Monday, State Industrial and Publicity Director Don Crisp said Thursday.

Two of the water shows—a carnival on Bluestone Lake near Hinton and the annual Ravenswood regatta—are scheduled for Labor Day. The other is the Ohio River Regatta at New Martinsville Sept. 27-28.

Two of the state's most popular festivals—the Apple Harvest Festival and Preston County Buckwheat Festival—will be held next month. The largest of the fall series, the annual Mountain State Forest Festival, is scheduled Oct. 14 at Elkins.

The apple festival, at Martinsburg, runs Sept. 24-27 and the buckwheat outing at Kingwood holds forth Sept. 25-27.

Crisp also pointed out that several county fairs would be held next month.

Ceremony Marks Turning On Of New Town Lights

MIDLAND—More than 400 residents of Midland turned up last night as street lights were turned on for the first time in this Georges Creek community.

Former Mayor Thomas H. Taylor, one of the oldest members of the community, turned on the lights. He has served the town as mayor for two terms and as city clerk for 10 years.

Rev. John Sleeman, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, gave the invocation.

Brief talks were given by Edward L. Ewald, Frostburg district manager for the Potomac Edison Company; William E. "Scotty" Orr, Midland businessman; Sheriff Edward R. Muir and Mayor Lionel Baker.

Mayor Baker introduced the members of the new Council, Harry Youngblood, Harry Devlin, Donald Cook, John Blair, Raymond Bampton and Alex Rennie. Rev. Charles Reckley, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, gave the benediction.

Delegate David J. Williams served as master of ceremonies for the street lighting.

The program included music by the Blue Angels Drum Corps of Westernport, the Arion Band of Frostburg and an exhibition by the drill team of the Mt. Savage Veterans of Foreign Wars post. The celebration will end tonight.

Miners Hospital Work Completed

FROSTBURG—James Bangerd, administrator of Miners Hospital, said work on retaining walls and blacktopping on the parking area at the hospital was completed yesterday by the Sensabaugh Contracting Company of Cumberland.

Retaining walls were built on the north slope of the hospital grounds and after a fill was made the present parking area was enlarged. Sodding of the remaining slope will take place as soon as weather permits, Bangerd said.

Bangerd also pointed out that air conditioners are now being installed in each of the operating rooms in the new wing of the hospital. Two units will be installed in each room.

An auxiliary power plant generator will be installed as soon as an enclosure can be built to house it, under the ramp leading from the second floor to the ground, which is used as a fire escape.

The plant will be used only in case of power failure and is designed to take care of all of the needs of the hospital.

Three Injured In Car Crash

BEDFORD—Two young Pennsylvanians were hospitalized yesterday afternoon after a one-car crash at Mile Level, a little over a mile east of Bedford on State Route 30. A third person was injured.

Clair Kauffman, 17, of RD 3, Erwin, is reported in "serious" condition at Bedford County Memorial Hospital with possible internal injuries, and lacerations and abrasion of his back.

(Daniel Kagarise, 18, of Everett, is reported in "satisfactory" condition at the hospital. He sustained a fractured right hip. The driver of the car, William D. Miller, 22, of RD 2, Bedford, was treated at the hospital dispensary and was released.

Pennsylvania State Police, who are continuing an investigation, said the car was traveling east on Route 30 and failed to negotiate a left curve.

The auto careened off the highway for a distance of several hundred feet, hit a dirt embankment and rammed into a pole in a parking lot.

Bloodmobile Unit To Visit ABL Sept. 8

Red Cross Regional Bloodmobile unit from Johnstown will visit Allegany Ballistics Laboratory Monday, September 8. Officials of the Allegany County Chapter of the Red Cross hope 150 pints of blood will be collected from plant employees. The unit will be at ABL from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m., according to Mrs. Norman Taylor, county blood recruitment chairman, who said that on March 4 this year a total of 148 pints were given by the employees.

On September 9, the bloodmobile unit will be in Piedmont, at the Presbyterian Church on Ashfield Street from noon until 6 p. m. It is hoped the quota of 85 pints will be reached. Residents of Piedmont, Westport and Luke and immediate area will be given an opportunity to give blood. Recruitment chairman of Piedmont is Mrs. Bernadine Appel, while Mrs. Frances Alongi is chairman of Westport. Mrs. Paul Cueva of Luke is also active in the blood program.

The bloodmobile unit will be in Cumberland on October 6 at the Eagles home on North Mechanic Street from noon until 6 p. m. The quota is 150 pints.

On the following day it will visit Frostburg and will be stationed the same hours at the American Legion home.

Wolves not only are abundant in Russia, but frequent sources of outbreaks of rabies there, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Registrars Sign Up 15 New Voters

Fifteen new voters were signed up yesterday as substitute registrars of the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors began a tour of communities which takes them to 22 different places before the September 22 deadline. Registered yesterday and last night at McCoolle and Luke were eight Democrats, six Republicans and one independent. The substitute registrars are Miss Bessie R. Baird and John J. Zapf.

At the McCoolle Fire Hall yesterday afternoon four Republicans and a like number of Democrats registered. Last night at the Devon Club library in Luke, four Democrats, two Republicans and one independent registered.

Today Miss Baird and Zapf will sit at the Barton City Hall from 2 until 5 p. m. and at the Midland Fire Hall from 6 until 9 p. m. After a pause for the three-day Labor Day holiday weekend, the tour will resume Tuesday at Shaft and Zihlman.

The office of the Board of Election Supervisors in the Court House basement is open from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a. m. until noon on Saturdays. Night hours will be observed for several nights before the September 22 deadline, according to Irvin J. Neat, Republican registrar and chief clerk.

Buser Named To FHA Unit

B. Beeson Snyder, supervisor of the Allegany County Farmer Home Administration, has announced the appointment of Floyd Buser of Oldtown as a member of the board.

The two other members serving with Buser are Wilbur L. Perrin and Harry H. Delbrook. Perrin succeeds Ralph W. Ferguson, whose three-year term expires this year.

Each agricultural county in Maryland has a three-member committee to work with the county supervisor to make the best possible local use of the agency's farm credit service program. The committee determines the eligibility of applicants for all types of FHA loans and determines the suitability and reasonable values of farms to be taken as security for real estate loans. It also reviews borrowers' progress as they pay off their FHA loans by means of improved farming and turn to banks and other lenders for the credit they need.

Route 36 Work Nearly Complete

Relocation of Maryland Route 36 from its intersection with Route 40 to Corriganville will be completed next week, according to G. Bates Chaires, district engineer for the State Roads Commission.

He said the commission hopes by next Wednesday to open the entire road and to accept the project by the end of the week.

The road has been built as a dual highway in the Narrows but only one lane has been opened, pending the installation of traffic signal treadles.

High-early-strength concrete was used for the traffic pad installations so that, weather permitting, both lanes of the dual section can be opened to traffic late Sunday afternoon.

By late Tuesday or Wednesday, the traffic control system will be completed and will allow the use of the new intersection with U. S. Route 40.

Blast Damages Home In LaVale Section

Occupants of a LaVale home were jarred yesterday when a gas furnace exploded. Considerable damage was also done to the heating equipment and parts of the residence.

The explosion was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Seiler. There was no fire and it was not necessary to call the fire department.

Both Parties' Speakers Aim Verbal Blasts

Washington County Meetings Held Only Few Precincts Apart

By The Associated Press

Democratic and Republican candidates for statewide Maryland offices blasted away at each other last night at meetings only a few precincts apart in Washington County.

Heading the Democratic speech brigade were Louis L. Goldstein, candidate for comptroller, and Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert, who is seeking re-election.

The big guns in the Republican barrage were Gov. McKeldin; Rep. James P. S. Devereux, the candidate to succeed him, and Sen. J. Glenn Beall, running for his second term in the Senate.

D'Alessandro III

The crowd of more than 200 at the Democratic meeting in Hagerstown was told that gubernatorial candidate J. Millard Tawes could not make the session and Mayor Thomas D'Alessandro, the party's senatorial candidate, was confined to his home by illness.

At the Republican picnic rally just outside of Hagerstown, McKeldin said House Speaker Sam Rayburn and "his clique control" prevented congressional passage of an anti-labor-racketeering bill by stalling tactics.

"The stunt has backfired on Sam and his colleagues in the majority leadership of the House," he said. "The people know who killed the bill. It was Sam and his boys."

Rakes McKeldin

McKeldin, in turn, was raked by Goldstein. The Democratic candidate said former Gov. W. Preston Lane Jr., who was among party leaders at the meeting, had begun such projects as the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and the rehabilitation of State mental hospitals, only to have McKeldin claim credit for them.

"The present governor," declared Goldstein, "went around cutting the damned ribbons and taking credit for them."

Other speakers at Democratic rally included John R. Foley, candidate in the Sixth Congressional District, and Thomas Finan, statewide county campaign chairman.

Ex-Governor Pleased With Party Action

Former Gov. William Preston Lane Jr., told the Democratic session that "We are witnessing the sensible reconstruction of our party and it augurs success for the Democratic Party in November. As never before, Democrats are working shoulder to shoulder helping each other. The teamwork locally and statewide is excellent. There is present a community interest. Each candidate is alert to help the other. There is an aura of success which will spread over the local, state and national elections."

"We have the opportunity to take our program to the public. This we must do," Lane said, adding that the entire state and local tickets "all have my enthusiastic support."

Earlier, Lane said it had been lack of unity the past eight years which had resulted in the election of a Republican governor, two Republican senators and three Republican congressmen.

Then he added: "At present the star of attraction of the Republican Party has gone out. It is now hidden. (President) Eisenhower's glamour is gone and he has come to the constitutional end of his existence and destiny."

"To what degree have the Democrats of this state become disgusted with their party in the past. It all was caused by lack of agreement and unity of purpose."

"The presence at this meeting of so many individuals from various sections and factions thrills me. It confirms the fact that the party has united together and is working shoulder to shoulder for the success of the party and the candidates who are representing it."

Court Requests New Typewriter

Magistrates Fred Crowe and James M. Carter at Frostburg today asked the Allegany County Board of Commissioners to provide a new typewriter for the Trial Magistrates Court.

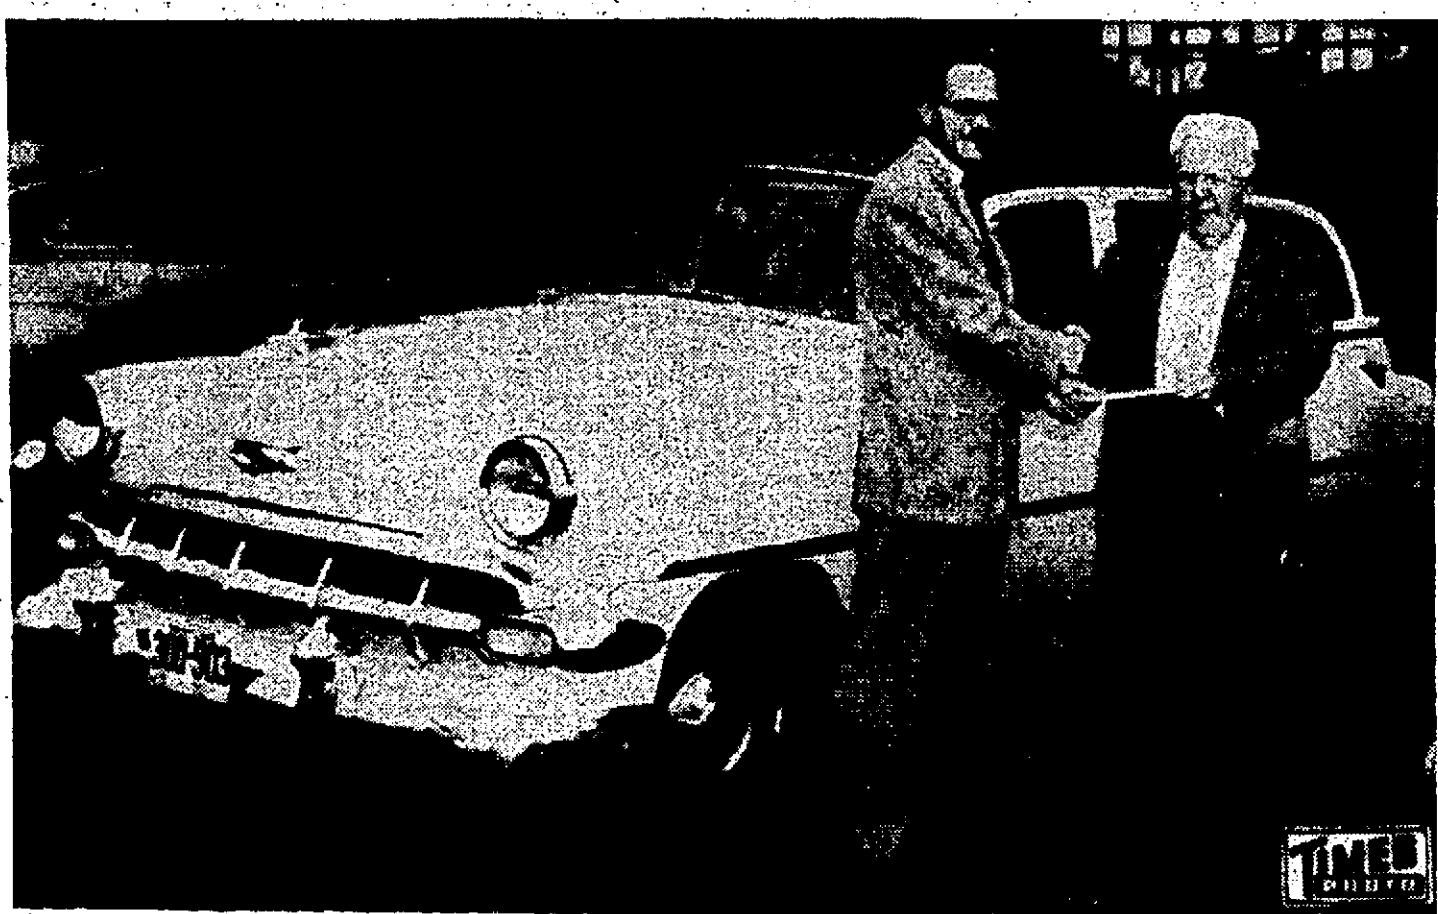

The magistrates said the present typewriter is 25 years old and beyond repairs. In addition, they said the machine is actually owned by Catherine Carter and is not county property. The board took the matter under advisement.

Police Prepared For Big Weekend

All available Maryland State Police will be on duty over summer's last fling, the long Labor Day holiday.

The National Safety Council has urged the driving public to cut their normal speed by ten miles per hour.

Leave early, the council advises, refrain from drinking in toxicants and take rest periods if sleepy.

who are participating in the Maryland Workshop for Blind program at 115 Milton Place. The funds were obtained from the annual sports car races sponsored by the Lions Club. Sen. See is director of the workshop.

County Shuns Responsibility For Creek Bed

It was decided today by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners that a condition in Georges Creek at Shaft was not the responsibility of the county.

William Meagher, one of the owners of a home along the creek, had complained of brush growing in the stream bed and causing water to run over the property in times of high water.

Harry T. Skelly, roads supervisor, informed the board that the condition, which is aggravated by sewage in the stream which flows from Frostburg and other points upstream, is deplorable but it is not a problem of the Roads Department.

Commissioners William A. Wilson and James Orr both stated that if the county cut the brush and trees and dredged the stream at that point it would set a precedent and subject the board to many similar requests.

Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson said the stream had been cleaned about eight or nine years ago and some relief should be granted.

Meagher became angry when told that the county could do nothing except to ascertain if there was some body or agency which had responsibility for the stream. He told the board that he would remember it come November. Commissioner Orr told Meagher not to make threats to the board.

Skelly also told the board that a roadway on which a school bus turns around off Moore's Hollow Road is privately owned, but the county has given aid when school buses are involved. Theodore Swanger, who owns the roadway, complained that a drainage problem existed at a point where the bus turns and the vehicle was often either stuck or using the land in front of his home.

Clubs Hear Talks On Middle East

Gideon Tadmor, second secretary of the Embassy of Israel, Washington, D. C., discussed the crisis in the Middle East in recent appearances before the local Rotary and Lions Clubs.

Israeli-Arab relations and the rising tide of Arab nationalism were discussed by Tadmor who is a graduate of Hebrew University in Jerusalem, author of numerous articles on the Mid-East and a contributor to the Hebrew Encyclopedia.

He pointed out that historically, the Middle East has been a trouble spot both because of the many differences in its various peoples and because of its geographical location. Tadmor asserted that the Israeli government officially favors Arab nationalism but violently opposes the present Nasser form of nationalism.

He re-emphasized the strategic importance of the Middle East's role in international affairs.

Girl Falls Into Catch Basin

Two city departments were called in to investigate the case of a 17-year-old local girl who fell into a catch basin in the Johnson Heights section last evening.

Det. Kenneth Morrissey reported Miss Thelma Jacqueline Lewis, 17, of 47 South Street, reported to Police Headquarters that she had fallen through a manhole cover at Greenway and Brookfield avenues.

She informed police she injured her left leg and could not walk. Det. Morrissey said the girl was accompanied by Sandra Kesner, 10 Boone Street. The injured girl was taken to her home last night.

This morning, the Street Department followed through with another investigation as to the reason the cover was loose.

Door Fractures Skull Of Worker

The 50-year-old M. Savage man who suffered a fractured skull when he caught his head between a sliding door and a boxcar here yesterday, is reported as being in fair condition today in Memorial Hospital.

He is Willis Black, who was hurt while working at the Farmers Feed and Supply Company, Harrison and George streets.

In another accident, Mrs. Laura Rice, 43, of Keyser, sustained a fractured right leg while at work at the Amcelle Plant of Celanese Corporation.

Attaches, who said her condition is "good," reported that the woman was injured when a silk transport fell on her. She was taken to the hospital about 7 p. m. in a plant ambulance.

Central 'Y' Day Camp Successful

This year's Day Camp season at Central YMCA was one of the biggest and best conducted in recent years, according to James H. Fortner, physical director.

The eight-week season was attended by 102 youngsters, with the average weekly attendance being 45, Fortner said. A number of new ideas were introduced during the 1958 Day Camp and these are expected to be retained next season.

Fortner explained that it is hoped to have more camp-outs, some type of nature program and new scheduling of major trips for the 1959 season.

A basic theme was adopted for each two-week period this year, with craft periods and activities designed for each period. The theme for the first period was "Pioneer Days," for the second, "Christmas in July," third, "Carnival," and fourth, "Cowboys and Indians."

Two camp-outs were tried for the first time, Fortner said, and 15 campers stayed overnight at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club grounds. The youngsters, with six leaders in attendance, prepared their own meals at the camp-outs.

Trips made to local points included visiting the Coca Cola plant, Schmidt's Bakery, and the Marine and Naval Reserve Training Center. The campers had the opportunity to observe and fire basic military weapons during the trip to the Training Center, Fortner said.

The highlight of each two-week period, he continued, was an out-of-town trip. Forty-two youngsters traveled to Shawnee Park for a day of picnicking and swimming during the first period. The second period trip was to Hershey Park, Pa., when 41 boys and girls toured the chocolate plant and enjoyed the amusement park.

The third period trip was to Capeton State Park, with 48 youngsters going along for picnicking and swimming. The last trip was to Washington. Sixty boys and girls and their parents visited the Capitol Building, made the FBI tour and went through the Smithsonian Institute.

Fortner said a large part of the success of the camp program was due to the members of his staff. These included Carole Ransom, crafts director; George Strachan, aquatic director; and Ronald Riggs, activities director. Volunteer leaders included Darlene Porter, Kenneth Fletcher and Eugene Hare.

Celanese Directors Declare Dividend

Directors of Celanese Corporation of America have declared a dividend of 25 cents a share on the common stock, payable September 25, to shareholders of record September 8.

The board also voted regular quarterly dividends of $1.12 1/2 per share on the Preferred Stock, Series A, and $1.75 per share on the 7% Second Preferred Stock. Both preferred stock dividends are payable October 1, to shareholders of record September 8.

Cab Company Defendant In Legal Action

Suit was docketed in Circuit Court today by Roy E. Davy, 11 Pennsylvania Avenue, against Fred W. Jenkins, trading as Astor Cab Company for damages of $150,000 as the result of a collision of a cab and car driven by the plaintiff.

Filed by Thomas N. Berry, attorney for Davy, the declaration states that on December 4, 1957, a taxicab owned by the defendant was being operated in a southerly direction on Park Street at the Central Avenue intersection and collided with Davy's machine, which was headed in the opposite direction on Park Street.

It was further stated that it was cold and had been snowing. There was an accumulation of snow on the street and Davy claims it was the duty of the taxicab driver to operate the vehicle in a careful and prudent manner. Davy claims the cab driver was negligent and careless and as a result the vehicle struck his car. Davy said he was thrown with great force against the steering wheel and inside of the car and suffered severe injuries to his chest and neck.

The plaintiff said he has since been confined to his home, except for brief trips for medical attention and is permanently and totally incapacitated. Davy said he had been employed as a fire inspector at the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant and had 30 years seniority and as a result of his injuries has suffered a heavy loss of earnings.

Painting Bids Sought On Tower

The Municipal Airport Commission last night authorized the city engineer to obtain bids for the painting of the signal tower and to award a contract for the work.

It was also suggested that the lettering "Cumberland, Md." be painted on top of a hangar building or at some suitable place as a means of identification for pilots.

The contract of Warren R. Mullenax, who operates the airport, expires February 28, 1959. In a letter, Mullenax indicated his desire to continue as operator of the port.

Mullenax has leased the port for ten years. The current lease was for two years with an option for an additional two years. He exercised the option and the contract expires next year.

County Board Studies Road Plan For Area

Over $100,000 Available In U. S. Help For County

Roads were the principal topic of discussion at today's session of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

A letter was received from Robert O. Bonnell, chairman of the State Roads Commission, requested the county board to make plans for participation in the federal aid matching fund program for secondary roads.

Bonnell said that more expeditious use of the federal funds is necessary as there has been some criticism by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads on the use of these monies by the various states.

Maryland has been allotted $2,549,980 as its share of federal funds for secondary road projects. A list of the counties shows Allegany County is eligible for $101,925 in the 1960 program. The money will have to be requested and plans made for projects by August 31, 1960 and projects completed by August 1, 1961.

Garrett County is eligible for $108,690 and Washington County can obtain $124,250. Allegany County is listed as having 667.15 miles of roadways, there are 710.7 miles in Garrett County and Washington County has 812.91 miles.

Members of the board said they will study the program before any decision is made.

Harry T. Skelly, roads supervisor, reported that the Malcolm Road will be graded within a week. Cutting of brush along the roadway will have to be delayed until after the first frost in October, he added.

Skelly said that county road workers have lost quite a bit of time in the past when they cut weeds and contracted either poison oak or poison ivy. In order to prevent such occurrences, Skelly said, the department will wait until frost kills off these noxious weeds.

Parking Fines Not Earmarked

City officials pointed out today that revenue from the proposed increase in parking fines would not go specifically to pay for retention of 11 school crossing guards.

Such money is turned in to the general fund and not earmarked for any specific purpose.

Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming announced yesterday that an increase in fines would be proposed as soon as amendments to present ordinances can be drawn. If approved by the Mayor and Council, the fines would increase from $1 to $2 for red line, yellow line and overtime meter violations. Use of the 25-cent courtesy meter at Police Headquarters would also be discontinued because its privilege has been abused by those who use it the one hour grace period and pay 25 cents instead of the $1 fine for overtime.

Fleming pointed out yesterday, and some city officials re-emphasized the point today, the parking fine increase is basically to increase traffic movement, prevent persistent and planned violations and allow more people to use metered zones.

Meanwhile, Fleming announced today that he and the heads of his departments, Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn and Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker, are continuing to scan the budgets for funds to pay for the crossing guards.

"We have found some money which can be used," Fleming said, adding "I think we will be able to retain some of them."

An announcement is expected within two days.

Four Placed On Probation

Four youngsters caught after an alleged attempt to free a 17-year-old girl from the detention quarters at the Allegany County Infirmary were placed on probation when they were tried in Juvenile Court this morning.

Magistrate Frederick Anderson found Harold Wickard, 19, of 830 Sperry Terrace, guilty of contributing to the delinquency of minors and was given a suspended six-month term in the House of Correction. He was also fined $50.

Two girls, 12 and 16 years, were found guilty of being delinquent minors and were placed on probation under the supervision of the Welfare Department.

City police nabbed the youngsters when the car in which they were riding crashed into a utility pole in the 500 block of Valley Street.

James E. Parsons, 26, presumably the driver of the car, fled from the scene and is being sought by police.

Eight Classes Listed For Flower Show

Record Number Of Entries Expected For Arrangements

"Doorway To Autumn," the fifth community flower show which will be held at the Eagles Home on Monday and Tuesday, September 8-9, by the Garden Club of Cumberland will have eight classes in the arrangement division, according to Mrs. William Frailey, general chairman. The arrangement division annually attracts a large number of exhibitors, Mrs. Frailey said, and a record number of entries are expected in this year's show.

Interest is running so high that the Garden Club has ruled that entries in arrangement classes must be registered by telephone or mail before September 3 with Mrs. Irving Millenson, chairman of entries. Mrs. Millenson may be contacted by telephone at PA 2-1456, or by mail at her home on Windsor Road, The Dingle.

Classes Listed

The names of the classes, and the requirements, follow: "Fruits of the Earth," arrangement of fresh fruit and/or vegetables in container or base. Foliage will be allowed, but no flowers will be permitted. The class will be limited to eight entries.

"Garden Ghosts," arrangement of white seasonal flowers in a white container, with additional green foliage permitted. Eight entries will be permitted. This class will have a separate division for professionals, limited to four entries.

"New Moon," crescent shape arrangement of late summer or fall flowers, with additional green foliage permitted. This class will be limited to novices who have never won a flower show ribbon, and entries will be unlimited.

"Touch of Autumn," arrangement emphasizing beauty of antique container and one or more accessories. One fall flower and fresh-cut plant material may be used. This class is also limited to eight entries.

"Flight of the Wild Goose," line arrangement suggesting movement and featuring water. One or more accessories are required, and the use of driftwood or weathered wood will be permitted. Limited to eight entries.

Make At Home

"Roadside Treasures," arrangement of plant material from fields and roadsides. Some dried plant material is required, but material on the conservation list is prohibited. Limited to eight entries.

"Bonfire," monochromatic mass arrangement of fresh-cut plant material using either red, orange or yellow. Limited to eight entries. This class will also have a professional sub-division, limited to four entries.

"Harvest Time," an invitation class limited to six entries. The arrangement is to have a harvest theme in the form of a setting for a buffet party. Information on this class can be obtained from Mrs. Ralph Isminger, chairman of flower arrangements for the community flower show.

Mrs. Frailey explained that entries in arrangement classes must be made at home, except for final touches. Entries will be accepted at the Frederick Street entrance of the Eagles Home between 4 and 7 p. m. on Sunday, September 7, and from 8 to 10:30 a. m. on the following day.

Judging will start at 10:30 a. m. Monday, and the exhibits will be open for inspection from 3 to 10 p. m. that day, and from 2 to 8 p. m. on September 9.

Magistrate Baron Has Busy Morning

Within an hour and a half this morning, Trial Magistrate Morris Baron collected $374.40 in fines and forfeited bonds on motor vehicle violations.

There were 21 cases scheduled. Eighteen were for speeding, with City Police nabbing nine and State Police the remainder.

Magistrate J. Milton Dick has been on vacation for the past two weeks.

Interchange Track Work Ready To Use

Old Bridge Across Potomac River To Be Removed

The new interchange connecting the Western Maryland Railway with the B&O Railroad will be in operation by tomorrow.

Sidney George, Western Division engineer, reported Western Maryland engineering department crews today completed bridging track across the old interchange track.

Monday and Tuesday the ties and rails will be removed from the old interchange bridge across the Potomac River to Ridgeley.

About Wednesday, George reported, the railroad will turn the bridge over to the contractor on the Potomac River channel work of the Cumberland Ridgeley flood protection project.

The E. J. Albrecht Company will then proceed to tear down the bridge, the sixth and last bridge across either the Potomac or Wills Creek that has been removed in the flood project.

Falling to the wrecker's hammer have been old Blue Bridge, the Western Maryland Railway bridge across the creek at Baltimore Street, and the Baltimore, Market and Valley street spans.

Where possible, piers were removed from the beds of the two streams so that in time of high water obstruction would be at a minimum.

The new interchange has a switching-point from the main line at the Western Maryland station, cuts across a bridge placed over the old canal lock, follows the river levee and cuts across the old Mid-City Ball park property to the vicinity of the westbound hump of the B&O Railroad.

The contractor on the flood project brought the new track to grade and the railroad completed the connecting line which is nearly a mile long.

Welfare Load Down Slightly During July

The case load of the Allegany County Welfare Board dropped slightly during July; according to the report of the State Department of Public Welfare.

Some categories of relief increased but 10 persons receiving general public assistance were dropped from the case load.

Total cost of welfare in July in Allegany County was $48,381.27, which is about normal as compared to the preceding months.

Largest item was $37,204.14 for aid to 1,120 dependent children of 401 families. Sixteen children were added to the rolls and 13 were cancelled. The average grant was $32.87 per family.

Old age assistance was given 576 persons for $25,737.46 with five persons added to the rolls and five cancelled. The average grant was $44.68.

Public assistance was given 23 needy blind persons for $1,163.41. The average grant was $50.58. Aid to 326 permanently and totally disabled persons was given for $15,754.71. The average grant was $48.33. Seven cases were added and four cancelled.

General public assistance was given 103 persons for $5,056.15. The average grant was $49.09. Foster care was provided 66 children for $3,429.40 with the average grant $51.96 per child.

$50 Offered For Five Lots

An offer of $50 was received today by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners for five lots on Fayette Street in the 600-block.

H. D. Barber, who resides at 628 Fayette Street, made the offer in a letter to the board. He said the lots have a 128 foot frontage but are very narrow and unfit for any building purposes. Barber said he hopes to clear the land and plant grass and improve the area, which in turn would enhance the value of his property.

The board turned the letter over to the Assessing Department for a check. The county has had the property since 1941 when it was acquired for taxes.

Court Probates Two Wills Here

Two wills were probated in Orphans Court today.

The will of Simon H. Snowden, 424 Central Avenue, who died August 22 was filed with a son, Robert V. Snowden, city, and Mrs. Meredith G. Parker, Baltimore, as executors. The executors and two other children of the deceased, Clifton R. Snowden and Pauline Snowden, were named beneficiaries.

The will of Mrs. Myrtle May Garrett, city, who died August 25 was also admitted to probate. A daughter, Mrs. Mary Virginia Shircliff, 711 Montgomery Avenue, was named executrix and beneficiary.

Officer Hurt In Ship Riot At Baltimore

Two Passengers
Also Injured In
Excursion Brawl

BALTIMORE (AP) — A riot involving most of the 2,000 passengers aboard the excursion ship Bay Belle last night resulted in the injury of a policeman and at least two passengers.

The ship steamed at full speed from near Sparrows Point to the foot of Broadway street after the Coast Guard was notified of the melee by the captain, Andrew M. Jackson.

More than 100 policemen were on hand when the ship docked to quell the disorders.

Captain Jackson said the rioting began about an hour before he was able to bring the ship to port. Chairs were thrown over the side and screams rang out over the Patapsco River after the first fight began on the dance deck.

The captain and the other members of the 39-man crew locked themselves in the pilot's compartment. About 10 policemen assigned to the boat were unable to control the fights among the Negro excursionists.

The two passengers, both Negroes, were treated for cuts. Patrolman Salvatore Tiburzi, 32, suffered a cut left hand.

The ship operators said the boat was chartered for the night by a Baltimore church.

Liquor Store Vote Illegal

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The State Attorney General's office today ruled illegal an election that approved location of a state liquor store at Franklin, Pendleton County.

The state's legal office told the State Liquor Commission the question, voted on as part during a recent municipal election had to be resolved in a special election according to state law.

The validity of the election was presented to the attorney general for determination after the liquor commission received a protest letter from George D. Moyers of Franklin.

The Liquor Commission said under the attorney general's opinion it had been advised that Franklin could not hold a special election until at least 60 days after the Nov. 4 general election.

Aeronautics Head Charges Politics Move

Says West Virginia
Governor Found
Reason For Firing

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Ousted State Aeronautics Director Hubert H. Stark charged today his firing was motivated by the "political desires" of Gov. Cecil H. Underwood.

Stark said during the past two weeks he had "learned more about politics than in the previous 22 years I was employed by the state," although Underwood declared the firing was not because of politics.

The director was dismissed last week on a charge of over-spending his budget for an aerial marker program. Stark charged that this was the governor's only way to "accomplish his desires" to get the veteran flier ousted from his job.

Stark also intimated that the state airplane had been used once to transport the governor's wife to Martinsburg for a garden club meeting.

Stark said he requested use of the plane last May 3 during an aeronautics educational meeting in Charleston. Permission was granted he said, but two days before the date the governor's pilot called to cancel use saying he would be using the plane to take Mrs. Underwood and another lady or two to Martinsburg.

"If garden club meetings are more important than aviation educational meetings, I guess that's all right," Stark said.

The ousted director said he had established the fact that Mrs. Underwood was in Martinsburg May 3 and that the state plane was there also.

State Fair Judging Starts; Grounds To Open Tomorrow

TIMONIUM, Md. (AP) — This is hurry up year at the Maryland State Fair.

The gates at the sprawling fairgrounds north of Baltimore don't open until tomorrow but already scores of entries at the exhibition hall have been judged and blue ribbons awarded.

But the main events are yet to come.

The stepped-up schedule is necessary because this year's event is a two-week affair mostly rolled into one.

Fair officials have packed most of the doings into the first eight days because school openings are right around the corner—and what is a fair without kids?

The second week is given over entirely to horses and ponies. Just about everything else comes during the first eight days, beginning tomorrow and winding up Saturday, September 6.

There will be running races at the half-mile track throughout the two weeks, except for Sundays and Tuesday, September 2.

The fair closes September 13.

Opening day highlights include the dedication of the race track's new million dollar grandstand and the selection of the farm queen from among 23 county farm girls.

The grandstand will be dedicated and opened with a bi-partisan ribbon ceremony — Republican Gov. McKeldin cutting one ribbon and Democrat Michael J. Birmingham, Baltimore County executive officer, cutting another.

The dedication is set for 12:30 p.m. and races get underway an hour later. The eight-race card starts daily at 1:30 p.m.

From among 23 county winners, a farm queen and four runners-up will be selected Saturday at 8 p.m. The queen will be crowned Sunday at 2 p.m. just before the 4-H Club parade.

A parade is set for Sunday at 1 p.m. to show off this year's farm machinery exhibit, largest in the fair's history.

The judging of 4-H and open class cattle, sheep and other livestock begins next Monday, Labor Day.

The midway and exhibition hall will be closed after Saturday, September 6. The last grandstand show will be held that night.

Horses and ponies will be judged during the week beginning September 8. The popular horse pulling contests will be held Friday and Saturday of that week.

Among the early blue ribbon winners were a homemaker booth exhibited by Frederick County and a 4-H booth entered by Dorchester County.

Pallbearers will be John Park, Clifford Spiker, John Turley, Maurice Long, Ray Van Horn, and Walter Henry.

Governor Cites
"Bad Practice"

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Gov. Cecil H. Underwood today cited a 1935 business deal of an insurance agency operated by State Democratic Chairman Hulet C. Smith as an example of the "bad practice" which led to creation last year of the State Insurance Board.

The governor said Smith's agency received $5,984 in premiums in 1935 for insurance believed to have covered a state airplane purchased under the administration of former Gov. William C. Marshall.

The insurance was awarded to Smith while he was chairman of the State Aeronautics Commission, a position he now occupies.

The craft was later transferred to the State Road Commission and Smith's agency refunded about $2,000 to the commission. Underwood said the awarding of the insurance was "part of the same bad practice that motivated the Legislature to create the Insurance Board last year."

First woman to be elected to the U.S. Senate was Hattie W. Caraway, widow of Senator Thaddeus H. Caraway, of Arkansas.

Lack Of Work Idles 1,500 At Shipyard

Threatened Strike
Keeps Vessels Away
From Repair Spot

BALTIMORE (AP) — About 1,500 production employees of the Maryland Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. were idled at midnight because of a lack of work.

W. Purnell Hall, shipyard president, said ship owners refuse to send vessels to the yard because they might be tied up indefinitely by labor trouble. The layoffs began about a week ago, with the bulk of the workers furloughed last night.

A company contract with AFL-CIO Local 31, Shipyard Workers Union, expires at midnight Sunday. Union members have authorized their negotiating committee to call a strike whenever it feels necessary.

Hall said two active jobs in the yard would be finished soon. He said there "was plenty of ship repair work around right now, but the owners will not go to a yard that has an unsettled labor condition."

The dispute centers around wages and pension increases. Local 31 is demanding the same increase granted to the Bethlehem Steel Co. shipyard employees under an automatic escalator clause agreed to two years ago.

The Bethlehem increase for a first-class mechanic is 25 cents an hour. Maryland has offered increases of 13 to 16 cents an hour with the pension plan agreement being extended for one year.

Jack Gerson, regional director of the shipbuilders' union, said first-class mechanics are paid $2.50 an hour at Maryland and $2.79 at Bethlehem.

Louchery referred to statements by E. D. Bazzie, who retired in July after 20 years' service about a month after being demoted to trooper as a result of a transfer. Bazzie testified at a legislative interim committee hearing Monday.

Louchery said one of the prime functions of the State Police is traffic safety. He said that in view of a sharp reduction this year in traffic deaths in the state, "it might be difficult to get the citizens and motorists of West Virginia to swallow an undocumented charge of lack of police morale and efficiency when such an outstanding record is presented."

He added: "Anyone with a normal amount of common sense — anyone who doesn't want to make political hay, that is — should be able to glance at the record and know that our State Police Department under Col. Hazen Fair, is doing a fine job."

Safety Work
Draws Praise

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Republican State Chairman Daniel L. Louchery entered today in a controversy involving West Virginia State Police matters. He said the department's record for traffic safety doesn't support a former sergeant's contention that it is politics-ridden and that morale is low.

Louchery referred to statements by E. D. Bazzie, who retired in July after 20 years' service about a month after being demoted to trooper as a result of a transfer. Bazzie testified at a legislative interim committee hearing Monday.

Louchery said one of the prime functions of the State Police is traffic safety. He said that in view of a sharp reduction this year in traffic deaths in the state, "it might be difficult to get the citizens and motorists of West Virginia to swallow an undocumented charge of lack of police morale and efficiency when such an outstanding record is presented."

He added: "Anyone with a normal amount of common sense — anyone who doesn't want to make political hay, that is — should be able to glance at the record and know that our State Police Department under Col. Hazen Fair, is doing a fine job."

Motor Policy
Contrary To Law

BALTIMORE (AP) — Judge Joseph Allen says a policy of the Department of Motor Vehicles is contrary to the constitutional guarantee of due process of law.

The judge said testimony in City Court yesterday disclosed the department revokes licenses of drivers who are involved in a fatal accident and then are convicted in Traffic Court of a violation connected with the accident.

Observing that a hard and fast rule cannot be used in such cases, Allen restored the driving license of Bernard S. Cohen.

Cohen had been freed on a manslaughter charge after his car struck a pedestrian, but he was later found guilty of failing to give the right of way and his license was revoked.

Tommy Mont, discussing the college football schedule for his University of Maryland Terrapins, is at a loss to understand the lack of fan interest in the College Park opener against Clemson.

The Terps have only four home games this season and one of them — the Navy contest November 8 — will be played in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. In addition to Clemson, Texas A&M and South Carolina will be met at College Park.

In pre-season ratings "loaded" Clemson is picked to win the Atlantic Coast Conference over such highly-regarded nationally-known powers as North Carolina, Duke and Maryland.

Yet, the Terps haven't sold enough tickets for the Clemson game to talk about it. "That's a real mystery to me," Mont says.

The Maryland mentor said it looks like the Navy game will be a sellout and the sale is good for Texas A&M and South Carolina.

"I have the greatest respect for Navy," says Tommy. "They're our natural rival. Texas A&M will be tough, as always, and South Carolina has Dixon and Hawkins. But I just can't understand fans not wanting to see Clemson's powerhouse, especially since that will be our opening game at home."

The Terps pry the lid off their 1958 season September 20 against Wake Forest at Winston-Salem, N. C., and the following week they meet NC State at Raleigh. The Clemson contest is slated for October 4 and the following Saturday afternoon the Aggies from Texas furnish the opposition. North Carolina, Auburn, Miami and Virginia will be met away.

About his own team, Mont said he has received some good news regarding Al Beardsley, the No. 1 end candidate last year. Beardsley suffered a fractured ankle on the third play of the 1958 opening game at Texas A&M and was out for the season.

In the spring Al hurt the same ankle on the first play of the Miami game, and at that time decided to give up football. But Beardsley's ankle apparently is as good as new and he's listed as the No. 2 end back of Cumberland's Ron Shaffer.

Scully Recalls Start

When the Dodgers moved their National League franchise to Los Angeles they took with them their two-man broadcasting team of Vin Scully and Jerry Doggett. And even though the Dodgers have been floundering in the second division most of the time since taking sanctuary in mammoth Los Angeles Coliseum, Scully and Doggett have caught on with West Coast baseball fans.

It is reported that as many as three million people have listened to a single game. A spokesman for station KNPC in Los Angeles claims that as many as 70 per cent of the radio sets in use were tuned in on that game.

The redheaded Scully is only 30 years old but has a voice that crackles pleasantly in a moderately low register and responds well to his artfully timed interjections.

Scully got a degree in communication arts at Fordham University in 1949. He had long wanted to be an announcer.

"I liked to listen to the crowd roar when I was a kid," he told a West Coast writer. "It was kind of intoxicating."

Scully worked five months for a station in Washington after leaving Fordham, then went to New York. At a studio there, he met Red Barber, the veteran sportscaster, who told him to leave his name. A few days later Vin had a job with CBS and was sent to Boston to do the Maryland-Boston University football game.

When he got to the park he found that no booth had been provided for him. It was a bitter cold afternoon and the big game that day was North Carolina-Notre Dame, but that one fell apart. "My game turned out to be the damndest thing you ever saw," he said.

There he was, on the roof of the stadium with a microphone and 50 yards of cable. If someone ran 20 yards, he ran 20 with him. "I was glad to do it to keep warm," he said.

Scully's performance that bleak day did him no great damage, and the next spring he hooked on with Barber and the Dodgers.

Since then, he has covered more than a thousand games and three World Series.

Pirates Open Big Series Tonight In Milwaukee

Bucs Must Get Sweep To Justify Flag Hopes

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The ambitious Pittsburgh Pirates meet the first-place Milwaukee Braves tonight in the first of a three-game series which the Bucs must sweep to justify pennant aspirations.

A sweep of the series by Pittsburgh would put them in striking distance of the pace-setters when the two teams meet in Pittsburgh for four games beginning Aug. 5. On the other hand, if Pittsburgh loses two of the three games their chances of surpassing Milwaukee in the homestretch become an extreme long shot. The Pirates are seven games behind Milwaukee.

Two 17-Game Winners

In tonight's game 17-game winner Bob Friend meets 17-game winner Warren Spahn as both managers go with their best pitcher. In two other mound duels this season between the two, each has won one game.

The Pirates have defeated Milwaukee seven times this season. Friend is credited with three of the decisions. The Bucs go into the contest winning five of their last seven games.

Groat Confident

Pirate team captain Dick Groat summed up Pittsburgh hopes when he said, "If we win two here, then we get them on our home grounds next week end in four games. And we're much better on our home court."

Pitcher Bob Porterfield arrived in Pittsburgh Thursday to undergo treatment for his left knee which he wrenched in Wednesday night's game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Pirates announced Thursday they would conduct special instruction for 24 selected players in their farm system next month.

Braves Confident Of "Freezing" Pirates

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International

With the San Francisco Giants packed away in cold storage, the Braves flew back to Milwaukee today fully confident of shutting the same freezer door on the Pittsburgh Pirates this week end.

The "ice-men" from Milwaukee just about eliminated the Giants from the pennant race during their latest hop to the West Coast—winning four of five games, including a 3-0 victory in Thursday's only major league game.

Now it's the Pirates' turn to "fish or cut bait." They open a three-game set at Milwaukee tonight, trailing the defending National League champions by 7½ games. So they must shoot for a sweep because, like the Giants, time is running out on Danny Mortalunga's upstairs.

Del Crandall, Red Schoendienst and Bob Rush got the job done Thursday for Milwaukee, Crandall figured in two runs, Schoendienst collected four of the Braves' six hits off Johnny Antonelli and Rush scattered 10 hits in posting his second shutout of the season.

The Giants looked futile in defeat, stranding 11 after getting men aboard in every inning. They presented Milwaukee with its first run in the fifth inning when Crandall walked, stole second and raced all the way home on errors by catcher Bob Schmidt and center fielder Willie Mays.

Schoendienst doubled home the Braves' second run in the sixth, and Antonelli walked Crandall with the bases loaded in the eighth to force across Milwaukee's final marker.

Frostburg Marketmen Trim Firemen, 6-5

The Frostburg A & P Super Market packed too many guns for the Frostburg Volunteer Firemen in their benefit softball game Wednesday at the Frostburg Ball Park and won a 6-5 decision.

All the runs by the Marketmen came in the third inning which was highlighted by home runs off the bats of Mike Passarelli and Dick Hawkins. Paul Haberlein, chief and deputy sheriff, started on the hill for the losers and was lifted in the third by Dave Powell, president of the Firemen, finishing.

Donnie Connors and Willard Blank had three hits apiece for the winners. Don Hinsel notched the triumph in the seven-inning contest.

Pan-Am Games Site In Chicago Inspected

CHICAGO (AP) — The executive committee of the Pan American Games sports organization today inspected sites in the Chicago area where the games will be held next year starting Aug. 27.

Saturday the committee will return to the city council chambers to wrestle with the problems of bringing Chicago's sports facilities up to Olympic stature by this time in 1959.

Griff Denies Vote Today On Transfer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington baseball situation has suddenly become the Minneapolis muddle.

Just when it seemed the Senators were on the verge of seeking a transfer to the Minnesota city, President Calvin Griffith said it wasn't so.

He said the club's board of directors would make no move toward Minneapolis at a meeting today.

"There definitely will not be any vote taken on moving the franchise," he said.

There had been widespread reports that action would be taken on two fronts today to pave the way for Washington to try for relocation in Minneapolis.

The Minneapolis City Council is expected to approve a nine-million dollar bond issue to finance an expansion of the city's stadium from 21,000 to 42,000 seating capacity.

Mayor P. Kenneth Peterson said he understood there was to be simultaneous approval at both ends—the okaying of the bond program in Minneapolis and a favorable decision by the Senators' board on the transfer proposal.

Railroaders Rap Don McIntyre's In Opener, 16-12

Punching over 13 runs in the fourth and fifth innings, Western Maryland Railway outslugged Don McIntyre's, 16-12, in the opening contest of their semi-annual series of the Men's Rec Softball League yesterday at Post Field.

The second game of the series is billed for this evening, 6 o'clock, at Naval Reserve Field. The winner of the set will face Local 26 in the finals. Local 26 eliminated Keech's Drug Stores from the playoffs in straight games, 13-1 and 14-13, earlier this week.

McIntyre's, fourth-place finisher during the season, was plagued by bases on balls with two hurlers issuing a total of 11 free passes. Bill Fair, first of the two McIntyre's moundsmen, took the loss. He was relieved in the fifth by Chisholm.

"Turtle" Slonaker, starter and victor for the Railroaders, was shelled from the mound in the fifth when McIntyre's chased over four tallies to move within four runs (10-6) of a tie. A six-run fifth held up for the winners although McIntyre's came back with a half-dozen markers in the top of the sixth.

Western Maryland socked 11 hits with Rev. Bruce Price pacing the attack on a perfect day in three trips. Bobby Russell, Carl Phillips and Gene Scaletta had two bingles each.

McIntyre's collected nine hits off Slonaker and Denny Knippenberg, including three by McCune and triples by Don and Dale Fuller.

Paul Flynn, shortstop, and Gerald Lambert, second baseman, were Western Maryland's fielding stars.

Pittsburgh Plate Smothers Caseys, Rubber Tilt Today

The opponent for Veterans of Foreign Wars in the championship playoff softball series of the Rocking Chair League will be decided today when Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company's fourth-place finishers tangle in the deciding game of the preliminary series with Knights of Columbus at Stitzer Field. The contest is slated to get under way at 6 o'clock.

The Glassmen forced a third game by drubbing the Caseys, 10 to 2, in a sloppily-played contest yesterday at Stitzer Field. The Knights committed seven errors and the winners were charged with four.

Either Bill Thompson, who lost a heartbreaking 1-0 decision to Allan Sheets in the opener of the series when PPG was short-handed, or Bud Law, yesterday's winner, will hurl for the glass-making Pirates. Sheets, who went all the way in the Thursday evening nightmare, will go again today for the Knights.

Geatz Hospitalized

The Caseys, who several weeks ago lost two-thirds of their outfield when Jimmy Collins moved to Baltimore and Bink King was shifted to the 3-to-11 trick at All-legany Ballistics, received an other jolt today. George Geatz, the team's leading hitter and slick-fielding shortstop, has been hospitalized.

Geatz was seized with chest pains while at bat in the sixth inning yesterday. Jim Angellotti finished Geatz' turn at bat and the latter was taken to Memorial Hospital where physicians advised him to remain several days for observation.

The Caseys jumped off to a 1-0 lead in yesterday's game, scoring an unearned run in the top of the second. Sheets doubled with one away, went to third on an infield out and scored when manager Red Ingram failed to come up with Chug Aman's twisting ground smash at third.

The lead, however, held up only until the Pirates came to bat. The Glassmen tallying four unearned runs without a single hit—and the rout was on.

Dam Breaks Loose

Sheets, who was coming close to the plate with his breaking stuff, but not close enough, walked the bases loaded after two were out. Bill Bratt grounded to short on what looked like the side-retiring out but George Geatz fumbled the ball and his shovel throw was too late at second to nail John Harbaugh, running for Law. That let in one run. Glen Street, the next batter, hoisted a routine fly to right that Toar Speir loof for a moment in the sun and then dropped for a three-base error.

A free ticket to Ingram, a passed ball and successive hits off the bat of Bob Koelker and "Diamond Sam" Brady produced two more PPG tallies in the third, Brady's bingle being a two-bagger.

George Stevenson beat out a punt to start the Glassmakers' fifth and after Norm Curtis popped out, Ingram, Koelker and Brady drove out base knocks. These four singles, along with two Casey errors, gave the Pirates their last four runs.

The Caseys got their other run in the sixth on hits by Al Martin, Bob McGreevy and Chick Snider, but Law averted further

Colts, 'Skins Play Tonight In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins, each team seeking its first victory, meet tonight in their annual exhibition football game.

The Colts scored 59 points in two previous games, but wound up with a 30-28 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles and a 31-31 tie with the Chicago Cardinals.

Washington bowed to the Los Angeles Rams 31-10 and the San Francisco 49ers 20-19.

Coach Weeb Ewbank of Baltimore says he is through experimenting with rookies and plans to give his veterans a stiff workout. Offensive end Jim Mutscheller, who didn't play in the other exhibition, is scheduled for partial duty.

Baltimore put punter and end Bob McKee, their 22nd draft choice from Monmouth College (Ill) on waivers yesterday, reducing the squad to 47 players. Only Orrell Braase is a doubtful starter tonight.

On the other hand, the Redskins report guards Dick Stanfel and Red Stephens, linebacker Bill Fulcher and rookies Stan Flowers and Don Glantz will be sidelined. Several others are on the doubtful list.

This will be an important contest for some players. All National Football League teams must be down to 43 players by next Tuesday. The Colts must drop four and the 'Skins six.

Discovery Dead, Dancer Now No. 1

BALTIMORE (UPI) — With the death of Discovery, Native Dancer took over today as the No. 1 sire at Alfred Vanderbilt's Sagamore Farm.

Discovery, who made his mark as a racer and stallion, was put to death Thursday after a lingering illness. He was 27 years old—an age comparable to about 100 years with humans.

Purchased for $25,000 by Vanderbilt as a two-year-old in 1933, Discovery set two world records during his racing career. He won 27 of 63 starts and finished out of the money only 16 times.

A free ticket to Ingram, a passed ball and successive hits off the bat of Bob Koelker and "Diamond Sam" Brady produced two more PPG tallies in the third, Brady's bingle being a two-bagger.

George Stevenson beat out a punt to start the Glassmakers' fifth and after Norm Curtis popped out, Ingram, Koelker and Brady drove out base knocks. These four singles, along with two Casey errors, gave the Pirates their last four runs.

Zihlman, Salisbury Play For Playoff Berth Today

Zihlman and Salisbury, who waged a close fight all season for the fourth playoff spot in the Pen-Mar Baseball League and then wound up in a deadlock for the position, will meet in a playoff this evening, 5:30, at Mt. Savage to determine the fourth team in the playoff series.

Both clubs posted 14-14 records for their 28-game season scheduled. Hyndman won the pennant with a 23-5 showing while Grantsville (22-6) was runnerup and Barreille (21-7) third.

The Zippers and Cardinals tangled four times during the campaign with Zihlman holding a 3-1 edge. The Zippers scored 7-1, 9-6 and 6-1 triumphs while Salisbury's lone decision was by 8-4.

Lefty Bill Haberlein (6-5) or Dave Richards (3-4) will toil on the firing line for Zihlman while the Cards will send either Jim Robertson (7-5), Don Carey (1-4) or Harold Nicholson (1-2) to the rubber.

If the weather results in postponement of the game it will be rescheduled tomorrow at the same place and hour.

The first two games of the playoff series are billed for Sunday and Labor Day. Barreille will face Hyndman and Grantsville will oppose the fourth place winner.

Barreille will practice tomorrow, 1 p.m., at Barreille in preparation for the opening of the playoffs.

Corriganville Eliminated In County Series

A new playoff champion will be crowned in the County Softball League this season as last year's kingpins were knocked out in the best-of-three semi-finals yesterday. Corriganville's Old Exports, who beat Maple Inn Old Germans in last summer's rounds, were whered' out in straight games last night, 9-0, by Kennell's Mill.

The Old Exports had taken the season title with a 22-8 mark but dropped the first game of the semi-finals, 7-3, Tuesday and then were white washed yesterday on the two-hit pitching of Vernon Lowery. Kennell's Mill wound up third over the season.

Stringers Seek Finals

Stringtown will be out to enter the finals this evening when facing Maple Inn at Wellersburg. The Stringers took the opener in a thriller, 1-0, Wednesday on a no-hitter by Ray Troutman.

Stringtown was runnerup in the final standings with a 20-10 record while Maple Inn finished fourth with a 17-12 showing.

Raygor Misses Series

Corriganville's two safeties were singles by "Boots" Raygor and Carl Grabowski. Art Raygor, who pitched Corriganville to the season title by winning all 22 of its games, is in Florida and failed to participate in the playoffs.

Carlton Stair sparked the Millmen with a double and two singles while Vern and Jack Lowery, who had won the opener, blasted a homer and triple in the 13-hit attack.

Coney, 'Porters In Rubber Game

Lonaconing and Westernport, even in their best-of-three semi-final series of the Twilight Baseball League, tangled in the deciding clash this evening, 6 o'clock, at Westernport.

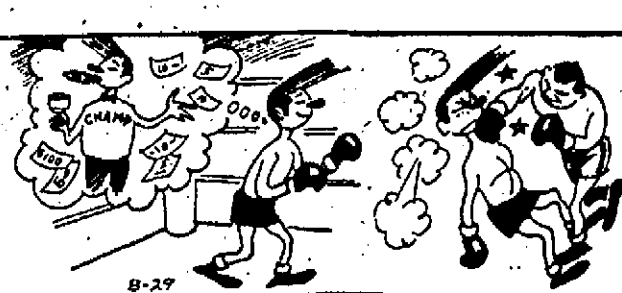

Coney took the opener, 9-3, on the six-hit pitching of Jerry Lancaster while Westernport shoved the series to the limit with a 7-5 victory Wednesday at Barton on a two-run rally in the top of the seventh.

Today's winner will meet Barton next week in the start of the finals. Barton, pennant winner, eliminated Midland in two games of the semi-finals, 9-4 and 11-3, this week. Barton won both titles last summer.

Killed By Javelin

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Bo Larson, 22, was injured fatally Thursday when he was struck by a javelin during a track meet. The missile punctured his left lung and cut the main artery.

Mal Anderson Man To Beat For U. S. Title

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (UPI) — Cowboy Mal Anderson of Australia, who raced with hurricane-force to the U. S. tennis championship last year, opens his bid for a second straight crown today if Hurricane Daisy will let him.

Heavy rains in Daisy's backlash were forecast for the New York area, but if that goes awry the black-haired better begins his title defense against Bob Perry of Los Angeles.

Either way, Anderson officially is the man to beat for the U. S. crown in a field of 128 men including every great tennis name in the amateur world except Sven Davidson of Sweden: Two-time Wimbledon champ Althea Gibson of New York, top-heavy favorite to repeat in the women's division, was scheduled for her first match Saturday.

America's chief hopes — Ham Richardson of Arlington, Va., Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, and Dick Savitt of South Orange, N. J. — were down for first-rounders today against foes they should handle without much trouble.

Wimbledon champ Ashley Cooper and lefty Neale Fraser, Australia's other two major threats, see action for the first time Saturday along with Alex Olmedo of Peru, Kurt Nielsen of Denmark, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Luis Ayala of Chile and Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Paris.

Rathman, Elisian To Forget Feud, Race At Trenton

TRENTON, N. J. (Special) — The two most controversial drivers in the Indianapolis 500-mile race — Dick Rathman and Ed Elisian — have been signed by promoter Sam Nunn to race in the 300-mile stock car race Labor Day at the Trenton Speedway.

Rathman and Elisian were awarded the first two pole positions at Indianapolis by virtue of their record-breaking 145 m.p.h. qualifying speeds, and were fighting it out in the first lap of the race, when they crashed in the southeast curve causing a 16-car pileup in which Pat O'Connor was fatally injured.

Rathman, accused Elisian of causing the accident and stated that he would never race again on the same track with Elisian. Duane Carter of USAC suspended Elisian. Later Elisian claimed that Rathman was at fault and requested a hearing before the USAC Contest Board.

Nats Facing Elimination By Yanks Over Weekend

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees should finally get around to making Washington the first victim of the inevitable in the American League pennant "race" this weekend.

The champs' magic number for officially eliminating the last-place Senators is three. Any combination of Yankee victories and/or Washington defeats totaling three does the job.

The Yankees open a three-game set at Washington tonight.

But if the Senators are doomed to be the first to go, they won't be alone very long. The number is 17 for the Yankee pennant clinching over the second-place Chicago White Sox.

The magic numbers that officially eliminate the rest of the league go like this: Boston, 16; Baltimore, 13; Detroit, 12; Cleveland and Kansas City, 9.

By comparison, Milwaukee's pennant number in the National League is 21 after rapping third-place San Francisco 3-0 in the only game scheduled in either league Thursday.

All that looms ahead for the Yankees, who have been in first place since April 18, the fifth day of the season, is a job of getting their pitching back on the beam for the World Series. Which is an incredible thing, as Casey Stengel would say, when you figure his guys are 11½ games out front.

Fact is, the Yankees have a staff that has produced 48 complete games this season (second only to Milwaukee's 57 in the majors), yet they've managed but 4 in 20 games over the past three weeks.

Whitley Ford (14-7) will go tonight against Pete Ramos (11-13). Elsewhere tonight, it's Detroit at Chicago, with the Tigers sending Herb Motord (3-6) against Dick Donovan (10-12), Baltimore, trying to shake off Detroit for a first-division finish, is at Boston.

The Orioles have named Arnie Portocarrero (12-9) against Frank Sullivan (10-7) of the Red Sox, who are trying to catch Chicago. Cleveland (Gary Bell, 7-8) is at Kansas City (Ned Garver, 11-9).

Baltimoreans Take Father-Son Tourney

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joe Schiller Sr. and Jr. of Salisbury came in third in the Maryland State father and son golf championship yesterday at Congressional Country Club.

The Schillers had a gross score of 76. The winners were Andy and Tommy Bartolec of Baltimore with 71, one under par.

Chaney's Battles Hermans Today For Playoff Role

The fourth position in the playoffs is at stake this evening in the City Softball League when Chaney's Transportation clashes with Hermans in a 6:15 contest at Penn Avenue Field.

Chaney's and Hermans both finished the regular season with 8-12 records and deadlocked for fifth place in the circuit. Today's victor nabs the fourth spot in the playoffs which get underway next week.

Hermans won the title series last season, their first in the circuit. Old Exports meet Knights of Columbus today in the other close-out contest at Post Field.

Old Export clinched the season banner Wednesday with a 1-0 win over Sports Shoppe. The victory was the 13th in 19 starts for Exports and gave them a two-and-one-half game edge over the runner-up Shoppers (11-9).

The Cases took third place in the final standings, entering today's game with a 9-10 record, two games in front of Chaney's and Hermans.

Jordan 12-5 Pick In TV Go Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI) — Don Jordan, California's reluctant welterweight, is a solid 12-5 favorite for his eastern debut tonight in a nationally televised 10-round bout with Lahouari Godih, French lightweight champion, at Madison Square Garden.

Lanky Don of Los Angeles is reluctant to be classed as a welterweight although he is ranked seventh among 147-pounders by Ring magazine.

"I'm still only a lightweight," he insisted today. "To get fights, I've had to meet a lot of welterweights. That's why they rate me a welterweight, I think."

Godih, 29, is unrated among lightweights or welterweights as he squares off for his fourth fight in the United States. Since he arrived from Paris, speedy Lahouari won two bouts and lost one.

Thomas Leads Negro Open By Two Strokes

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Dick Thomas, Baltimore, carried a two-stroke lead in the Negro National Open as the United Golfers Association tourney entered third round play today.

Thomas shot a one-under-par 71 at North Park golf course Thursday to maintain his lead over four-time winner Charles Sifford, Philadelphia, who shot a 70 for a 36-hole total of 143.

Defending champion Ted Rhodes, St. Louis, was seven strokes off the lead after carding a 77 for a 148 total.

Lions Shoot Tonight For Second Win

By The Associated Press

The Detroit Lions, still seeking to prove that they are better than they looked in losing to the College All-Stars, go after their second National Football League exhibition victim tonight.

The Lions, 1957 champions, meet the New York Giants, 1956 titleholders, at Detroit in one of the three scheduled night games. Another matches Los Angeles' undefeated Rams with the Cleveland Browns at Los Angeles. The winless but high-scoring Washington Redskins and Baltimore Colts tangle at Baltimore.

After taking a 35-19 licking from the All-Stars, the Lions bounced back for a 17-7 victory over Cleveland. In the Giants they'll meet a team well fortified with veterans who split two games. They beat San Francisco 19-10 in their opener and then were swamped by Los Angeles 38-10.

The Rams, winners of two games, have scored more points than any other NFL club. In addition to the decision over the Giants they downed the Redskins 31-10. Cleveland's lone triumph was a 10-0 defensive battle with Pittsburgh.

Although they lost to Philadelphia and tied the Chicago Cards, the Colts have rolled up 59 points, only 10 less than the Rams.

Player Of Day

Red Schoendienst Good As 'Rightie'

By United Press International

Most baseball men figure Red Schoendienst is a bigger threat when he bats left-handed. However, don't try to sell that to the Giants' Johnny Antonelli.

Antonelli pitched his heart out Thursday against the Milwaukee Braves, allowing only six hits. But the switch-hitting Schoendienst, batting right-handed, collected four of them in helping the Braves to a 3-0 victory.

Now 35, Schoendienst still covers his second base position like a youngster. And as Milwaukee manager Fred Haney declared the other day, "Red is a helluva man to have on your club. He does so many things well."

Johnny Antonelli will buy that!

Williams, 40 Tomorrow, Seen Still Playing In '59

By BOB SALMON

BOSTON (UPI) — Ted Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, turns 40 Saturday.

He's still hitting like a 25-year-old and—at times—still acting like a 10-year-old.

However, the temperamental Boston Red Sox star has begun showing some signs of age. True, he is currently making a bid for his sixth American League batting title. He's just a few percentage points off the pace for winning it this season, with a .315 average. He's whacked 21 homers this season, with a month to go. And he's still a fearsome sight at the plate, his tanned muscular arms holding the bat as if it were a swizzle stick.

But Ted ain't what he used to be. A good many of his hits this season have lacked the old zing he was noted for. He has hit and attempted to hit to left field, against the overshifted infield, more often than ever before. And his batting mark, though plenty healthy, is far below his .350 lifetime average.

What about Williams' future as he heads into his fifth decade? First of all, he'll undoubtedly be back next season. He hasn't said so in as many words, but Ted has stated often that his last big target is still 500 home runs.

Only three players in history have ever topped the 500 figure. Babe Ruth leads with a fantastic 714, Jimmie Foxx clouted 534, and Mel Ott still leads the National League with 511. Even Lou Gehrig missed, collecting 494 during his career with the New York Yankees.

Williams is fifth man in the standings with 477. The 500 mark would be well within his grasp with another full year and another $100,000-plus salary is nothing to sneeze at (or spit at).

Ted himself says he'd like to stay in baseball after his playing days are over. He's also said he wouldn't want a manager's job, but whether he actually means it is another question.

Whatever may change about

Four Players Tie In Golf Tourney

Four were tied for the lowest number of putts (13) in the regular Wednesday night golf tourney at the Maplehurst Country Club.

Dr. William Powers, Ed Preman, Bill Prichard and Jack Zehrbach deadlocked for first place.

"Bud" Law was closest the pin on No. 4 and "Pepper" Inskeep was closest the pin on No. 7.

Bom Prichard won the blind drawing for the other prize.

A luncheon followed the tournament. The men's golf team of the Maplehurst Country Club will play host to the Oakland Country Club in a return match on September 7. Maplehurst won the first match.

SHOWBOAT'S RETURN

RELIVING THE PAST. Two costumed players, Joan Eastman, left, and Shirley May pose in front of the showboat at St. Paul.

Wheel of pilot house serves as backdrop as Bain Boehlke and Lee Ann Irgens rehearse. Frank M. Whiting, head of cast, watches.

The showboat, an American institution that seemed to go out with the hoopskirt and bustle, has come back this summer to the Mississippi rivertowns of Minnesota, with all its nostalgic flavor.

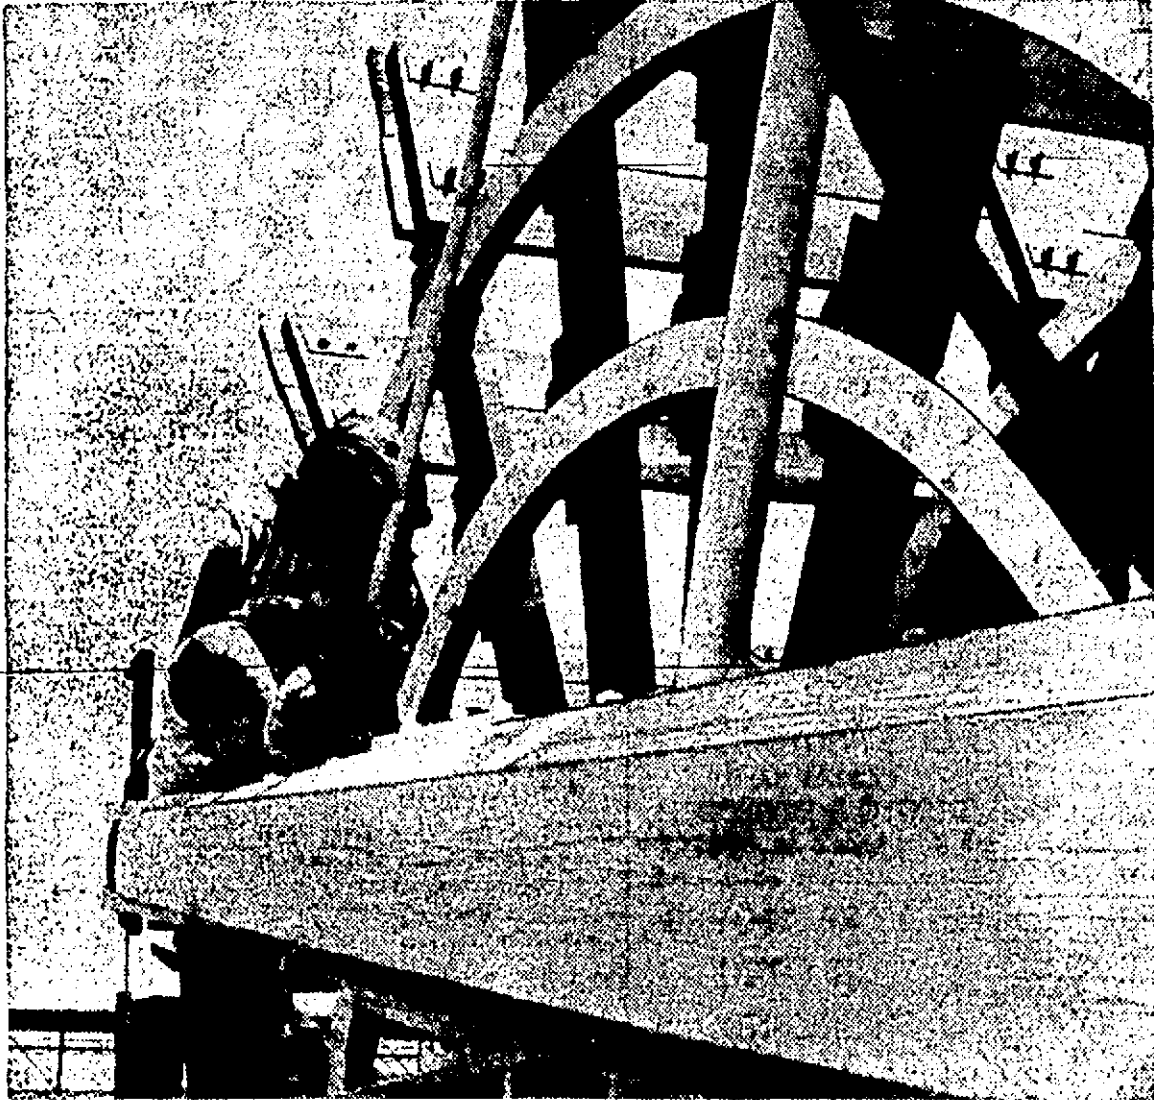

The boat is the former General John Newton, an old sternwheeler packet that plied the Mississippi for nearly 60 years. Last spring, it was turned over to the University of Minnesota to be used as a showboat. After a complete overhauling and the installation of a 224-seat theater, the boat was ready for its footlight debut. The university's theater group supplied the cast.

Now each summer night, the people of Minnesota's river towns climb the gangplank to see Augustin Daly's "Under the Gaslight," a tingling drama first presented in 1867, and popular for many years. After a brief stay at one spot, the boat is towed to the next.

Ship's pipe serves as seat for actress Shirley May as she ties her high shoes in preparation for show.

Shirley May finds boat's sternwheel a quiet spot to read her letters from home.

Actresses Jeannie Larson and Betty Doolittle help keep ship clean by scrubbing parts of the boiler on the main deck.

Girls in play have to descend hatch to reach their dressing room.

Raymond Lammers, who is dockman as well as actor, tugs on loose lines as patrons arrive for show.

The play's begun. The opening chorus of "Under the Gaslight" comes on stage in front of a full house.

Dear Abby - - -
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a man of 29 who is in a predicament. I am in love with two women. They are mother and daughter. The daughter is 17 and her mother is 35. Actually I prefer the mother. She is only six years older than me while I am 12 years older than the daughter. Please don't tell me I should have my head examined but I know I could be happy with either one of them. They are both very much in love with me and I can't seem to make up my mind. Which one should I choose?
FISHERMAN BILL
DEAR BILL: Marrying one and being related to the other could present problems you didn't count on. Change your location and fish off another dock.
DEAR ABBY: I am 16 years old and am in love with the most wonderful boy in the world. He gets out in two years. My parents fight with me all the time because they don't want me to wait for him. They try to get me to go out with other boys, but, Abby, I am in LOVE with this guy and I don't want to date anybody else. I sleep with his picture under my pillow and I think about him all the time. Do you think my parents have a right to keep after me? How can I get them to leave me alone?
VERY MUCH IN LOVE
DEAR VERY: One of my readers has the answer for you and here it is:
DEAR ABBY: I am just 16 and for the past year I thought I was "in love" and now that it is all over I can see if I had listened to my mother I would have been going out and enjoying life and dating a lot of people and having fun like a 16-year-old girl should. All these girls of 14, 15 and 16 think their folks are unfair because they want them to go with lots of boys, and not see too much of any one. They had better slow down and remember that their folks know a lot more about life than they do and God would not have given us parents if we were able to get along without them.
A TEEN-AGER
DEAR ABBY: I've been intimate with my boss for some time and now I am going to have a baby. I'm 22 and should have known better. He said when I have the baby he and his wife would adopt it and give me $500 in addition to paying all my expenses. His wife agrees to this because she can't have any children of her own. Do you think I should go through with this?
UNDECIDED
DEAR UNDECIDED: Absolutely not! Get in touch with your FAMILY SERVICE ASSOCIATION.
DEAR ABBY: Whenever I try to discipline our children, the wife steps in and tells me I am wrong. When I criticize the children for anything, the wife gets into the act and tries to make me look small. She thinks she is winning the children over but I think she is mixing them up. She says she is the one who has to stay home with them all day and if I make them mean they take it out on her. How do you live with a wife like that?
MAN OR MOUSE
DEAR MAN: Your wife should stay out of the act—even when she thinks you are wrong. A woman who causes a man to wonder whether he is a man or mouse shouldn't be surprised if he turns into a rat.
DEAR ABBY: My girlfriend and I are having an argument. Which is worn first on the finger, the wedding band or the engagement ring? And why, please?
JOSIE AND FLORA
DEAR GIRLS: The wedding band is slipped on first, and then the engagement ring. I don't know why, and no one whom I have asked knows why, either.
CONFIDENTIAL to Yoodle: It's a little early for a "snow job." Change your technique.
For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Murder Case Expected To Go To Jury

GREENSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—The murder trial of a West Virginia soldier, accused in the slaying of Mrs. Elizabeth Paige, Scott Haven, Pa., was expected to go to a jury today.
TSC Frank O. Siggers, 21, of Williamsport, testified Thursday he fired the bullet which killed Mrs. Paige, 45, last April 4 but said he only wanted to scare her as she came towards him with a gun.
Siggers further testified he was led on by police and told what to say in a tape-recorded confession he made in Veterans Hospital, Pittsburgh. After the shooting, Siggers was found with a bullet wound in his head by other soldiers stationed with him at Herminie, Pa.
Siggers, in relating the events leading up to the shooting, said two men, whom he identified as "William Wheeler" and "Charley" came to the Paige home the night of the slaying. He said he quarreled with one of the men and got a gun to defend himself. Siggers said Mrs. Paige grabbed a revolver and started towards him and he fired to scare her.
Character witnesses called by the defense included three former Army companions of Siggers: Lt. Col. Thomas Daines, commander of the 1st Missile Battalion (Nike), and the Rev. A. H. Hunter, of MacBeigh, Ky., Siggers' pastor.

Iraq Promises To Honor International Oil Pacts

By K. C. THALER
United Press International
LONDON (UPI)—The Iraq government of Brigadier Abdul Karim Kassam has given fresh pledges to honor existing international oil agreements which will set plans in motion to double the country's oil production before long.
The assurances were given to G. H. Herridge, managing director of the internationally-owned Iraq Petroleum Company who just returned from talks with the new leaders in Baghdad.
The new Iraq government has reaffirmed in these discussions its intention to honor the agreements with the foreign oil companies, and it let it be known its policy was to keep the oil flowing.
As an immediate outcome of this development it was reported authoritatively that plans will be put in operation to double the oil output from its present level of 30 million tons annually to some 67 million tons by the end of 1961.
Have Equal Shares
The operation lies in the hands of the Iraq Petroleum Company which is owned in equal parts by United States, British, Dutch and French interests.
Fears at the time of the recent Baghdad coup for the future of the Iraq oil appears to have now been allayed by the government's proclaimed desire for continued cooperation with the Western interests.
There were strong indications though that before long the Iraq leaders may seek modification of the treaty terms to secure a larger share of the profits derived from the oil operation.
But Herridge's latest on-the-spot soundings have encouraged hopes for compromise when the issue is raised officially.
More For Iraq
The Iraq government has in turn received assurances from the oil company that efforts to increase the oil output in the country will be coupled with a policy of expansion of Iraq's oil exports.
The present profit sharing for Iraq oil follows the established pattern in the Middle East — it has been arranged on a 50-50 basis.
But this will have to be modified in Iraq's favor when another oil state in the area obtains better conditions.
From its present output — of which much is shipped to Western Europe — the Iraq government has so far derived some 70 million or 80 million sterling (between 196 million and 224 million dollars) in royalties a year.

Burkhamer Execution Set October 28

CLARKSBURG, W. Va. (UPI)—Harrison County Circuit Judge Carlos J. Harbert Thursday set Oct. 28 as the new execution date for James Lee Burkhamer, of Clarksburg, confessed killer of 11-year-old Charlene Villain, also of Clarksburg.
Harbert announced the date following two hours of arguments during which defense attorneys claimed Harbert was without authority to take the action since Burkhamer had an appeal filed with the U. S. Supreme Court.
However, Prosecutor Robert Ziegler maintained that Harbert was within his rights to set the execution date. The sentence would be carried out at Moundsville State Penitentiary.
The condemned man was originally sentenced by Harbert to be executed last Feb. 14 for the rape-slaying May 5, 1957, of the young girl in an alley near her home. But only three days before the original execution, the State Supreme Court automatically delayed the action when it agreed to hear arguments on Burkhamer's complaint that he did not receive adequate representation from counsel before pleading guilty.
The high court later rejected the plea and directed that Harbert set a new execution date.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Saturday, August 30, 1958

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—Your Mars and Moon in auspicious positions. This can be a very fruitful period for you but you may have to work a bit harder to attain all the benefits possible.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—Your Venus goes into a fine aspect after sunset. Be as ambitious as usual. Tackle anything—difficult or easy—but don't abuse health.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—Mars and Jupiter can now be reached through working amicably with others. Don't seek to do too much alone; it is often more advantageous, more fun, to collaborate.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—Stimulating vibrations in your particular sector. You should make solid progress in your own work, and be successful too, in outside activities.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)—This may not be an entirely easy period but it is one that will prove a challenge to your efforts and skill. Good management and intelligent thinking will be highly important; also efficiency in your own work.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo)—While mental work may prove a little more difficult than usual, you should be pleased with gains through other activities and interests. Be acquisitive; get your share of benefits. Be cheerful, too.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra)—A happy combination of Mars and Neptune influences encourages artists; favor domestic matters. Working well with others, you should reap gains, benefits.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Scorpio)—Gauge your tempo and the amount of work you undertake by the energy of your tasks. If not compulsory, don't work too hard or strain to achieve unreasonable aims. Have some fun!

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 23 (Sagittarius)—Mild influences. You can handle things in smart order and achieve much of what you set out to do. Don't force issues, but be sensibly careful; don't overdo.

DECEMBER 24 to JANUARY 19 (Capricorn)—By emphasizing your skills and adding a little extra "stunt" to your repertoire, you can add to the selling qualities of your wares and reap profits.

JANUARY 20 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—Day requires care in the small, but essential, matters. Take care of these as promptly and efficiently as you can, then relax. Have some outdoor recreation.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—Bright, encouraging potentialities. The whole day can be one of attainment, of happy enterprise. Be acquisitive; get your point over, but don't force issues.

YOU BORN TODAY are a spirited type—full of energy, determination and a willingness to proceed at all possible speed. Do take time to examine carefully the real objective of your endeavors, and what might be their outcome. Don't rush toward any goal without forethought. Remember that hard work and lofty ambitions don't always spell talent. But do use the talents you have. You have tremendous vitality; do not misuse it. (King Features, Inc.)

Today we see the unlucky expert once more in action against Larceny Lou with conditions back to normal. The expert remains unlucky. Lou continues to win.

North might well have opened two clubs instead of one so the final three no-trump contract was conservative indeed.

Larceny Lou opened the queen of hearts. The unlucky expert who was declarer counted nine of the surest tricks ever seen. So did Larceny Lou. The expert was marked with the diamond ace or he would have passed at one club.

The expert won the opening lead, led the eight of diamonds and let it ride. Lou won with the king just to see what would happen.

He continued with the jack of hearts. Dummy's ace won the trick and after a brief comment about partners who did not understand about the slam bonus the expert led the five of diamonds and finessed his nine. Lou took his jack and plenty had happened. The expert was down to eight possible tricks and the sure-thing contract had vanished into thin air.

Area Waters Termed Good For Fishing

Labor Day Weekend
Finds Streams In
Ideal Condition

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Fishing prospects this weekend in West Virginia appear to be excellent, according to the State Conservation Commission's weekly stream report released today.

The report noted that the Eastern Panhandle area presents a particularly bright outlook with all streams reported in good condition with the exception of the Shenandoah River in Jefferson County which is a little muddy.

The commission also pointed out that streams in the northern area of the state are either normal and clear or normal and milky. In the central area, the Elk River, Braxton County, was normal and the Buckhannon River, Upshur County, normal and muddy.

The weekly report said the Greenbrier River, Greenbrier County, was normal and milky, while Bluestone River, Mercer County, was muddy. Clear Fork in McDowell County was normal and clear.

Meanwhile, in District 5, the report said the Little Coal River, Boone County, was normal and black, as was the Guyandotte River, Logan County. The rest of the streams in the district were reported normal but somewhat muddy.

Interfaith Marriages Increasingly Common

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International
When a Protestant boy falls in love with a Catholic girl, neither of them likes to be told an interfaith marriage is a perilous undertaking.

But that's precisely the advice they'd probably get if he consulted his pastor and she consulted her priest.

"Mixed marriages" are increasingly common in this country, where Protestant and Catholic children grow up in the same neighborhoods, participate in the same community events, and often attend the same schools or colleges.

According to the official Catholic Directory, one-fourth of all marriages in Catholic churches involve "mixed" couples. The figure does not include the large number of Catholics who marry non-Catholics in civil or Protestant ceremonies.

Source of Tension

Some interfaith marriages work out fine. But clergymen of both faiths say, a difference of religion often becomes a serious source of tension. This assertion is supported by at least three separate surveys — in Michigan, Maryland and Washington state — which show divorce and separation rates run about three times higher in mixed marriages than in those where husband and wife are of the same faith.

Pastors and priests also are troubled by evidence many "mixed" couples solve their problems by turning away from religion altogether.

A Catholic bishops' committee conducted a 10-year survey of this problem. It concluded about 30 per cent of Catholics who marry non-Catholics are "lost to the faith."

A Methodist sociologist, Prof. Murry H. Leifer of Garrett Biblical Institute, interviewed more than 400 couples who had married across religious lines. He found one-fourth of them no longer maintained even a nominal church connection, while another fourth had not attended church in more than a year.

Reflected In Children

This tendency to sweep the "sore subject" under the rug also is reflected in the children. A YMCA study revealed that in families where both parents were Catholic, 92 per cent of their sons also were practicing Catholics. Where both parents were Protestants, 68 per cent of their sons were practicing Protestants. But in "mixed" families, only 34 per cent of the sons were practicing members of either faith.

The spiritual perils of a mixed marriage are officially recognized by the Catholic Church. Its Canon 1060 forbids a Catholic to enter into a mixed marriage without special dispensation. This is granted only in cases where the non-

W. Va. State Parks Chalk Up Records

Visitors Number
2,711,387 During
Past Fiscal Year

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The State Conservation Commission said today that a record 2,711,387 visitors were recorded at West Virginia's state parks and forests during the past fiscal year. The previous fiscal year total was 1,969,094 at state parks and 742,303 at state forests.

The report said Hawks Nest State Park again led the attendance figures of the nine forests and 20 parks with a total of 414,496 visitors, compared to 327,805 in the 1956-57 fiscal year.

Coopers Rock State Forest lead the forests in visitors with 339,150—an increase of more than 37,000 over 1956-57 attendance.

Parks Chief Kermit McKeever said recreational facilities, including swimming pools, will remain open for the Labor Day weekend at the parks and forests.

He said most cabins will close Oct. 30, but winterized cabins at Watoga, Cacapon, Lost River and Blackwater Falls State Parks will remain open year-round, as will lodges at Cacapon, Blackwater Falls and Mont Chateau State Parks.

McKeever said cabins at Greenbrier and Cabwalingo State Forests and those at Babcock and Holly River State Parks will be open to hunters and visitors through Nov. 1. Cabins at Seneca and Kumbrow State Forests and those at Droop Mountain State Park will be available through the deer season ending Dec. 6, he said.

Upper Potomac Waters Clear

THURMONT, Md. (AP)—Harpers Ferry is the dividing line for fishermen interested in the Potomac River. It was generally clear and normal above there but high and cloudy below.

The Game and Inland Fish Commission said the river was cloudy and up 1½ feet in Frederick and Montgomery counties.
